PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 15, 1822.

PRINTED BY ATRINSON & ALEXANDER. No. 53 MARKET STREET, Four doors below Second st.—north side.

CONDITIONS. The Saturday Evening Post is published once a rek, at $2 per annum, payable half yearly in vance—or THREE DOBLARS if not paid before

Subscribers will have the privilege to insert an vertisement, throughout the year, to the extent half a square, at two dollars additional—with customary allowance for renewals and altera-ns. Non-subscribers to pay at the rate of one Letter Box will be found at the gate (No. 53 rket street) where Advertisements and Comnunications may be deposited—or they will be hankfully received in the Office back.

[For the Saturday Evening Post.] TO MISS hearing that I had spoken disrespectfully of he

Yet words are sometimes spoken when the hear Yerk not their meaning;—all is soon forgot By he that said them,—but they never part From one that's injur'd,—or his become fair, Should she perchance have heard them;—never no! And is it true !—it may be: O, what praver Can ask a pardon for the treach'rous blow? lone -none!-if such were said, they leave sting That envy sharpens;—nought can mitigate th' unhallow'd wound;—no language well can

Within its scope, excuse for seeming hate.

Within its scope, excuse for sectiong nate,

O, wretch—that he must be, whose taining breath

Could speak so ill :—let none his walks attend

But, is it true?—nay,—on the pain of death,

By you bright heav'n, I would not wrong the friend.

PASQUIN. June 11th, 1822.

[For the Saturday Evening Post.]

LINES

Written upon viruing Peale's celebrated painting of the Court of Beath.

Ecreen'd from the rays of Sol's meridian heat, Where fanning zephyrs wafted incense sweet,

And stillness " ruled the hour," Weary I lay, and courting sweet repose, My feet the lily grac'd, my pillow'd head the ro

Within a rustic bower. Obedient Morpheus soon, the drowsy god, Document Morpheus soon, the drowny Rod, Conjuring slumbers with his magic rod, Had clasp'd me in his arms— O balmy sleep! to me thou friend most dear, Of joys above a welcome foretaste here, How countless are thy charms!

Methought I travell'd up some dreary way, Nor felt of Solar light one cheering ray,
Some distant clime to gain—
With thoughts upon my journey still intent,
Now o'er some desart drear my steps were paus'd-O for a skillful guide! exclaim'd-My wish was granted soon as nam'd, Bright radience shone around—

A female from my wondering open behald,
A wreath of myrtle in her hand she held,

Sweet flowers her tresses bound. She smil'd enchanting, while her raven hair, Flowing luxuriant, kiss'd the perfum'd air, And gently bade me stand: "To cheer the pilgrim is my pleasing task— In yonder arbour resting, will you hask? Accept my proffer'd hand."

Through ev'ry vein there ran a pleasing thrill,
While tripping light we cross'd the vale and hill,
And reach'd the arbour green—
Exotics choice round native plants entwine, The mellow orange here, and on the spreading vir Were grapes in clusters seen.

My limbs had now regain'd their wonted strength

To hie me on my way— Yet as we wander'd o'er the verdant banks, My fair conductress still refusing thanks, With smiles prolong'd my stay. crystal flaggon from her girdle hung,

And, as she fill'd it, sweetest stanzas sung
In beauty's praise and wise:
"Why in a road of labour does mylguest abide?
Thro' pleasures lovely walks I'll be your guide,
And make each transport thine."

She spake-my lips the surcharg'd goblet prest, While new delights my melting soul possest, I caught her laughing eye— Air-born, enwrapt, I rav'd in every breath, Insipid life begone, if this be Death

Who would not wish to die? At length the subtle poison makes its way o' every pore, while senseless I extended lay, And call'd for aid in vain-

With joy malignant the deceiver smil'd, Loathsome snd meagre now her features wild, And mock'd each writhing pain. "Fool that thou art, (the horrid phantom said,)
To-morrow sees you number'd with the dead,
'Tis I that sends you there—

Retrace your steps if yet you've power to see-fluw like ye. Man, a lovely guide like one?" Then vanish'd into air.

woke in terror, trembling with affright, While Sat declining, spoke approaching night.

Experience thus my dream explains: mperate pleasures, deadliest foe to man, Th' unhallow'd revel, feast, or flowing can, A poison'd shaft contains. B. . fugust, 1821.

[For the Saturday Evening Post.]

On a morning in May, after a rainy night. Now Sol his mellow lustre throws On scenes whose opining tints disclose Blossoms that wave amidst the breeze Upon a thousand, thousand trees, And on a thousand, thousand flow'rs, Which form as many beauteous bowers; And on a thousand, thousand plains, Refresh'd by gentle evening rains; And on a thousand, thousand hills, From which remurmer pearly rills; And midst the woods, where these unite To please the hickless, wand ring sprite,

A thousand trees Wave in the breeze, On thousand hills, Where flow pure rills, Where flow pure rills, Where flower like flowers O'er rude form'd rocks,
Where flowers like flocks
Of fairest sheep
Hang o'er the deep.
Where flowery tints, and beauteous green,
Perfect the charming pictur'd scene;
And music wakes amidst the gloom,
the citilizan quiet as the tomb. O! Mature! through unnumber'd years,

[For the Saturday Evening Post.] On the new American play called Calaita. O world! what were a world without a home! Without one, it were vain to conquer Rome. For, conquering still, as done in ages past, Our honse's lov'd juys world conquer us at last. And if our love and country are the same, Surely our country, then, should have a name; So, if we seek it with an anxious care. So, if we seek it with an anxious care in our own annals, we shall find it there; Sure 'its no harm to see an Indian play, Or hear it listen'd to by fashion gay; We ask not words that harsh and oddly sound: For those in every savage tongue are found, That sound so hard their grating sound we stint, And look so odd, we laugh at them in print; Nor would we say we all are brown or black, Nor would we say we all are brown or black, For if we're white we then good sense shall lack love and passion ever are the same The agile form of truest strength is there,
And grace and beauty with attractions rare—
Though rudeness ever dwells in forest wild,
Beauty is there, and sought by Pancy's child:
The green trees smile o'er rocks and caverus grat The green trees smile o'er rucks and caveras gr And hang with blossoms o'er the silent wave, Like laughing Copuls on a rude built dome, Where heads rude sculptur'd tell of ancient ho Knowledge and intellect, or rough or rude, Exist the same, in life or solitude, 'Tis but to polish the rough stone, to bind With gentle wreath the blossoms of the mind, And love will reier with cultivation them.

Moral and Religious.

And love will reign with cultivation On rural field, and in the forest fair.

WORLDLY POSSESSIONS.

All worldly processions and attainments, un-less temporal be joined to spiritual views, must end in disappointment. That this is an incontroend in disappointment. That this is an incontro-vertible truth, the daily experience of the young, and the more mature and settled experience of the old, will necessarily confirm. This can only be doubted by those minds that are continually gropping in temporal pursuits; who, from an ar-dent love of the world, would fain disprove what dent tove of the world, would fain disprove what they every day lament, namely, that they are dis-appointed and unhappy. They have accustomed themselves to wear a mask, until they cannot do without it, and would endeavour to establish a lasting qualification in the opinion of others who may believe themselves as possessed of what they daily sigh for.

the very nature of the soul, which is immortal, can only be satisfied with immortal possessions — All things which begin and end with time, are of no more estimation, in the truly religious mind, than in the degree in which they are made subservient to the cause of religion and virtue, for eternal purposes. In themselves, they are transient and

Honours, riches, pre-eminence and power, may be rendered subservient to the cause of religion and virtue: and in this new creation of their uses, may be pronounced very good. But, considered in themselves, as they will come to nothing, so they are nothing. Ask the youth on whom religion and virtue have made some early impressions, in what estimation he holds his worldly pleasures and qualifications, when he returns to his serious, silent and admonitory made time t and he will can. silent and admonitory reflections! and he will car didly own, that they are vain, delusive and impro-Date: that, it he can only that the frame in the world who so estimates them, one of his truest sa-tisfactions would be a frequent and an uninterrupt ed intercourse with such a friend, on more interesting and more elevated subjects. In his riper years, he will confirm, more and more, the estimate made in his youth. His pursuits of virtuous attainments will become more and more steady and more ardent with his advancing years, until his thoughts, words and actions will have eternal numerous in them. purposes in them, and will serve, at oner, to ren der bim more and more useful here, and to pre parethim for a better state.

Virtue is eternal:-and the mind that is soberly virtue is eternal;—and the mind that is soberly impressed with its dictates to the constant practice of them, lives in eternity even while in time; and will find time truly delightful in the degree in which it opens the subject of a happy eternity. The mind that would shut out this prospect, asparates itself from religious virtue, and meets with

Extracts from Goldsmith.

ADVERSITY.—The greatest object in the universe, says a certain philosopher, is a good man struggling with adversity; yet there is still a greater, which is the good man that comes to relieve it.

AFFECTION.-When men arrive at a certain station of greatness, their regards are dissipated on too great a number of objects to feel parental affection: the ties of nature are only strong with those who have but few friends or few dependants

Ennou -For the first time the very best may err; art may persuade, and novelty spread out its charm. The first fault is the child of Simplicity but every other, the offspring of Guile.

THE SOUL .- When the soul is at rest, all the rate sort.—when the soul is at rest, all the features of the visage-beem settled in a state of profound tranquility. Their proportion, their union, and their harmony, seem to mark the sweet serenity of the mind, and give a true information of what passes within. But, when the soul is excited, the human visage becomes a living picture; where the passions are expressed with as much delicacy as energy, where motion is designated by some correspondent feature, where every impression anticipates the will, and betrays those hidden agrations that he would often wish to conceal.

agrations that he would often wish to conceal. It is particularly in the eyes that the passions are painted; and in which we may most readily discover their beginning. The eye seems to belong to the soul more than any other organ; it seems to participate of all its emotions, as well the most to participate of all its emotions, as well the most off and tender, as the most tumultuous and forceful. It not only receives, but transmits them by sympathy; the observing eye of one catches the secret fire from another, and the passion thus often becomes general. ten becomes general.

MORAL COSMETICS.

The following list of materials for a moral cos-metic is offered to our readers, which, in the very few instances in which it has had a fair trial, ren-ders lovely the plainest set of features, and confers on beauty the charm of a celestial intelligence.

For calm dignity, bland openness, tender softness, purity of complexion, bloom, and agile grace, Religion. Benevolence. Temperance. Exercise. the fire of animation, Intelligence.

The eighth anniversary meeting of the Methodist Missionary Society for the York district, was lately held in York, England. Among the gentlemen who addressed the meeting, was the Rev. J. Hawtry, formerly an officer in the dragoons. From statements made to the meeting, it appeared that the Methodists have employed in the four quarters of the world 150 missionaries, besides schoolmasters, &c. They have near 30,000 members in society, about 200,000 hearers, and 10,000 heathen chil. dren under instruction, on their different Missionary stations; in the whole of which they reported improvement. There was raised throughout their societies last year, for their support, 26,581l. and their expenditure was 34.451l.

THE OBSERVER-No. V. Varium et musabile semper.-Virgil.

[For the Saturday Evening Post.]

THE PLEASURE PARTY.

Ir was a remarkable pleasant day, near the close of September, that a party of young ladies and gentlemen, were tempted by the calm of the afternoon, to take a sail on Lake George. The boat was proexpressive of the pleasure they expected to enjoy. As the gentle breeze wafted them along, they for awhile discoursed on the surrounding scenery, so celebrated for its beauty, but after a time, there was a sameness in the conversation that began to render it uninteresting to our youthful tourists-Charles Dudley, who was one of the number, and equally distinguished for his gallantry, grace, and highly polished manners, proposed that each should relate some occurrence in life, fiction, or anecdote, pro bona publico-in this he was warmly seconded-but oh! such tales did they recount of adventurous knights, scaling ramparts, and buffling the vigilance of the goaler of a beautiful and captive princess, who was in the power of some terrible and ferocious giant-and of the loves, the smiling loves of Betty Scullion, the cook maid, and Tom Ostler, the conchman, which ever and anon called up the ready notes of mirth and festivity. Again they told of some unfortunate lover and maiden who were separated from each other by the cruelty of their sordid parents-this would cause the "tear of sensibility," for a moment, to dim the lustre of each female eye. Thus their feelings followed the lively sallies of imagination, and so absorbed every reflection, that it was not until a heavy peal of distant thunder, portended an approaching tempest, that prudence dictated a speedy return. Being of the party, I too had participated largely in their subsequent amusements. Unconscious of the rate the boat had proceeded, we were far from home. The clouds began to thick en, and the whole sky denoted a storm of the most fearful kind—the water became violently agitated—the forked lightnings glared vividly—peal after peal succeeded each other—while the ladies clung to their companions for protection, but they scarcely could conceal their own apprehensions of personal safety. The boat was tossed to and tro, and seemed ready every moment to engulph us-we were totally unable to manage it—the wind, too, had driven us far from any landing place, and to add to the horrors of the scene, night came on, Oh! what a difference-those fore the seat of acclamation and glee were now blanched with fear. I have not yet for got the moment when a sudden exclamation of horror, as the lightning flashed, discovered the gay Charles Dudley struggling with the waves-his eyes already starting from their sockets! I never saw a countenance so distorted. His cry for help -for he could not swim-still rings horris bly on the ear. The storm was at its height torn up and thrown to him—but the current carried them in a contrary direction, or he could not see them. Another flash discovered him close at hand—I seized an oar and extended it out to him—be was lined aircline.

The dead are buried here heaps upon heaps, like the Philotines whom Sampson slew with fice many black him sensible of their equality—consequently they became attached and united by the bonds of friendship—Let those who have delicate minds remember equality is the only basis of Friendship.

The dead are buried here heaps upon heaps, like the Philotines whom Sampson slew with fice may have how same attached and united by the bonds of friendship—Let those who have delicate minds remember equality is the only basis of Friendship.

Low can be seen to the dead are buried here heaps upon heaps, like the Philotines whom Sampson slew with fice the Philotines whom Sampso -all were afraid to risk life for his preserjust sinking-making a last struggle between life and death, he laid hold on it with the convulsive grasp of a drowning man-but ere we could drag him to the boat, it snapp'p! and I pever saw him His hat had been blown off into the lake, and he was in the act of recovering it, when a heavy squall struck the boat, he ost his equilibrium, and fell overboard.

The storm had nearly past-the thunder died gradually away in a long low rumbling noise—the glare of the lightning ceased to fire the sky-and the moon emerging from her concealment showed us we were near the spot from whence we had embarked ---

With heavy hearts we retraced our steps back to the village. The next morning the lifeless body of my friend was found, and consigned to an early tomb. R. E.

[Por the Saturday Evening Post.]

THE MEDLEY-No. II.

Sweet are the uses of adversity
Which like the toad, ugly and venemous
Wears yet a precious jewel in his head. SHAKS. Struck with the prosperous rays of fortune blind, We light alone in dark affliction find. Dayses

We light alone in dark affliction find. Daynes. Nothing tempers the mind to a calm resignation to the inscrutable decrees of Divine Providence more than frequent calamity. Nor are there any means better calculated "feelingly to persuade us what we are." The shafts of adversity pierce through the thickest teguments of pride—They prove to the king that he is but a man, and to the man, that the poorest worm that crawls beneath his feet is scarcely less vulnerable than he. Instances often occur, of men whose years have been blessed with prosperity, sinking under the anguish of sudden misfortune, whilst others to whom adversity is familiar, and whose hearts have become callous to the vicissitudes of fortune, rise superior to every distress, and in the end often are triumphant. In this state of probation how can we wish pertainty expect aught else but trials and misfortunes? The iron hand of adversit, may be re-strained until " the pale concluding winter" of our days; but, whether in the morning of life when we feel most pleasure in the happy dreams of ima-gination, or in the prime of mandood when we glo-ry in our strength, or in the evening of existence, when the ploughshare of age has furrowed the cheek, we cannot hope to be exempted from those misfortunes which are the common lot of humani-ly, for

Not the good, the wise, or great E'er yet had happiness complete; d knowing this, as we value our prace of mind, and knowing tim, as we value our prace or mind, it becomes an imperative duty is lay up sources of consolation, which a life well spent will always afford. It will be almost impossible for an upright man to be comfortless in affliction, he can extract consolation from the past. And, certainly, however clouded his present prospects may be, his anticipations of the future will not be barren of comfort, the anchor of his hopes rest on surer. comfort, the anchor of his hopes rest on surer ground; it is firmly fixed where misfortune can have no power, and where the purest earthly hap-piness when compared to that is but as the depth sery.

e motives for patience in affliction are nume The motives for patience in affliction are numerous and of the most charming cast. It is then that the consolations of religion are sweetest, it is then we are taught to feel the vanity of all sublunary expectations, and, in the beautiful simile of a poet of the present day, "as the sunflower" we turn to God and find comfort in him who is the sole refuge for the unfortunate.

[For the Saturday Evening Post.]

FRIENDSHIP. [INSCRIBED TO G. J.]

True friendship warms, it raises, it transports, Like music, pure the joy without alloy, Whose very nature is tranquillity. Young.

Examples of this generous, disinterested and virtuous passion, in all its purity, are seldom to be met with; antiquity furnishes us with but few examples of it, modern times still fewer—neather viramples of it, modern times still fewer-neither vir-tue nor talents can always keep the scale of friendtue nor talents can always keep the sease of trend-ship balanced, when opposed to the adventitious circumstances of high birth. It is certainly the most sublime of all passions, because it originates from a mutual affection of the soul, it is the off-spring of honone—Courage, candour and genero sity are its unalienable properties—such are the ideas of that noble sentiment handed down to pos-ceits by those sentiment thanded down to possteam of that nobe seminent hands to who par-terity by those ancient writers who ' together flourished and together feli."—Some centuries have elapsed since real friendship has deigned to appear among the degenerate sons of men, and like a mutilated statue it has become the subject of admiration to a few virtuoso in philosophy, more than a subject of employion.

than a subject of emulation.

The utmost stretch of the warm imagination of the historian, sheds but a laint ray of its ancient lustre—yet even in the few instances handed to us, it dazales our imagination rather than attracts our regard. When we look back on the history of Po-land and reflect upon the friendship of Octavina land and reflect upon the friendship of Octavina and Leobellus, or on that of Damon and Pythias of Sicily, whose friendship has astonished the world in every age, by the atmost divine iffect it produced; our mind sympathizes with the inseparable companions, torn from each others aims by an envious world, to suffer persecution; we are wrought to a pitch of enthusiasm, and whether we think of Octavius and Leobellus, Damon and Pythias, or Bolia and Alonary we have thony with the mind's eye, rushing with daring interpidity amidst the clashing of swords and whizzing of bullets, until by degrees our fancy sicks exhausted aming the classing of swords and whitzing of out-lets, until by degrees our fancy sinks exhausted and we find ourselves incapable of love like theirs. —Wealth cannot purchase, nor gifts insure its per-manence, it is, even in its degenerate state, an affection that cannot subsist in vicious minds, and among the most virtuous it requires a purity of sentiment, manners and rank for its basis. The great rarely enjoy this blessing; vanit; and emu-lation prevent its growth among equals, and the hamiliating condescension with which superiors sometimes deign to affect friendship for their in-feriors, strikes at the very foundation of the sen-timent from which there can only arise a tottering superstructure, whose pillars, like those of mo-dern composition, bear the gloss but want the du-rable qualities of the mental marble sincerny. Instances have been known, though very rare, of friendship existing between men is different ranks of life, particularly Henry the Fourth and Sully; but it will be remembered that the virtues of Sully

MELVYNE. ship never can.

PICTURE OF HAVANA.

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman in Hawana, to his friend in Mabile. The chinate of this island is designiful, and the soil is rich and fertile. The bread fruit tree, the Extract of a letter from an American gentleman in Havana, to his friend in American gentleman in Havana, to his friend in Madele.

The chimate of this island is delightful, and the soil is rich and fertile. The bread fruit tree, the lemon, the date, and allspace tree, grow here, burn although the inhabitants "breathe the fragrance of the groves of Java, they do not skeep upon the down of the cygnets of Gianges." Pleas are almost as plenty as they are in Mobile, but the musquintoes are neither so numerous nor so greedy as they are in New-Orleans. The Spanish women are very expert at catching fleas; i have frequently seen them practising on dogs! Islimachtes and Jezebels are abundant, and so are Knights of the rueful countenance, Rozinantes, Sanchos, and asses. Many of the men are Nazarites, and many of the women gre not. Here also are much cattle. One would suppose, that Shanigar, the son of Anath, who siew six hundred Phinistones with an ox-goad, must have been a Spaniard; that the carriages, yelept volantes, were invented by the Dutch for market waggons, and that the wheel-barrows were constructed after the fashion of those carriages, yelept volumes, were invented by the Dutch for market waggons, and that the wheel-barrows were constructed after the fashion of those vehicles made use of in the time of Solomon, to carry lumber from Joppa, and stones for the building of the temple.

Assassinations and robberies are not so frequent lately as they were some years ago; but even now it behoves all persons, and more particularly strangers, to carry a sword or a large cane, especially

This city is the resort of foreigners of all nations and rolours. I believe there are as many languages spoken here as a there was after the confusion of tongues at the tower of Babel. The incoherent and unconnected expressions of the Indian, and the immeaning congosiers of the Kegro, are heard amidst the brogue of the Irish, and the broad seks usate me accents of the Scotchman; the dulect, soft, and mellifluous tones of the Italians, and the strong, expressive, and sibilant language of the English, are mingled with the copious, love making, and harmonious diction of the French; while the harsh and aswage pow-wow sounds of the Russians; the guttural and jaw-wrenching German; the grunting donder and bitzens of the Dutch, are the granting donder and bitzens of the Dutch, are the granting donder and bitzens of the Dutch, are the granting donder and bitzens of the Dutch, are jumbled together with the outrageous splitter and splutter of the Swedes, and the barbarous, Scandinavian, cehelds and tot of the Duces—and all are mixed in such "confusi in worse confiningled," that they can scarcely be dis inguished among the grave and sonorous accents of the Spanish Done.

The variety of characters is no great that it would purgle Alcibiates or even St. Paul, "is become all things to all men;" aithough the latter, if he chanced to see the ladies in their beth day of he chained to see the indies in their series, without doubt, would say, as he did in former times to Timothy, "Let the women be deceasly covered."

Acquaintances are easily formed in this city, this is owing in a great measure to the narrowness of the streets and the lofe price of grog. The bets ter class of Spaniards are point and honorable in their behaviour, but the lower order have a strong disposition for thieving, cheating, and imposing upon foreigners. Both sexes appear to be dull and indolent. The manners of the majority of them are as grave and as gothic as the walfs of their own houses. Many of them are low lazy even "to whistle for want of thought "It is said that an Englishment's house is his castite; so is a Spaniard's, but in a different sense.—

The Englishman's is protected and protects its owner, by the aid of the laws; while the Spaniard's house protects him, not only against the laws, but against the lawless also.

The churches, which are numerous, are important to interest of building, of stone. Some of them are antique, and covered with meas on the outside, and look like castles of ould lang syne, while the interior resembles a palace below and a garret above, and exhibits a curious mision of rags and ruffices, meanness and magnificence, elay and gift ginger bread.

The women in this city, like Mary Queen of Acquaintances are easily formed in this city, ginger bread.

The women in this city, like Mary Queen of Sents, it is said, " possess qualities to be loved, but not talents to be admired " They have not that elegance of form and graceful ease of mannes which is characteristic of the ladies of Louisians, which is characteristic of the ladies of Louisiers, and they are destitute of that animation and gaiety which constitute so large a share of simule attraction, particularly among the Creoles of New-Orleans. A great majority of them are too fat and gross to be hard-ome, unless quantity may be gross to be hard-some, union quantity may be taken as an equivalent for quality, but they appear to be as "warm and tender and as full of wishes," as Rowe's Pair Penkent, and to have subjeted the advice of Locke, as an axiom, "To employ them thoughts about fundamental and material things, consider acciding those that are triflure, and took carefully avoiding those that are trifling, and not suffering themselves to be diverted from their main even purpose, by those that are merely acci-

Akenside says, I think with as much truth se elegance, " Beauty dwells

There, most conspicuous, even in outward shape, Where dawns the high expression of a mind "

The eyes of the Spanish ladies are black and sparkling, and expressive of everything, but mind. It was said by David, that "the Lord taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man," but, the feet of the women here are so small and beautiful, that I am certain, if David could see them, he would sa-claim in different language

"I swear by Jove, Their pretty little feet I love As sure as Heaven is above "

The principal places of resort, for amusement, are the Coffee Houses, the Theater, La Quinta del Obispo or Bishop's Country Sear, the holle battings, the Balls, and the Kong's Walk or Pateer. In all other countries, when a man is attacked, almost every person within sight or hearing stant to see us to general him, but herep, when a man is stabled and cries for assistance, every one units nto the house and shuts the dones, because, see cording to the Spanish laws, (as I have been in-formed) the man who is found near a dead body, is considered the murderer; and because the witnesses, as well as the guilty, must be confined in prison, until the time of trial. The consequence is, that re-beries and murders are combuted with impunity, for few instances are brought to trial, and all the rascals escape justice.

The Pasco, or King's walk, is in the village out, it is much foregraphed as Sun-

The Paseo, or King's walk, is in the village out; side of the walls. It is much frequented on Sun, day afternoons. On each side of it there is a beautiful row of trees and a fine stream of water, but it is also worthy of remark, that on one side, and the Baracous or places where slaves are kein for sale, and on the other the Leper's hospitat. Thus at the road to pleasure lies between Seylia and Charrybdis—sickness and minery—Leprusy and Slaveshies.

The dead are buried here heaps upon heaps, the operation is continued, unto the grave, which usually boids five or six is fitted up, when they put quick sine upon the whole mass, and pound them down as a paver does paving stones!

HOTTENTOT BELLE,

But the most remarkable piece of affectation with which she adotted herself was, three small bits of ivory, of the size and shape of sparrow's eggs, loosely pendant from her hair, one in front, as low as the point of the nose, and one on the outer side of each cheek, all hanging at the same length. These daughed from side to side as she moved her head and doubtlessly, made full as mends for their inconvenience, by the paquancy they were thought to add to the wears's brauty. The upper part of her head was covered with a small leather cap, fitted closely, but quite unormal mented, and I should have had a pleasure in gratifying her with a present of a string of heads, the

v. Vlkiusou.3

SCI ERIOR PATENT SPRING RIDING SADDLES, AND PATENT LAPORTE BRIDLES, &c.

HAVING purchased of JOHN J. MGRRIS, of the city of New-York, the sole and entire right of making and vending his newly invented SPRING BEAT and SPRING POINTED SADDLES, within the city and county of Philadelphia, offers them for Sale,

AT HIS SADDLE & HARNESS MANUFACTORY, No. 5 North Fifth street.

Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and see the principle on which they are constructed.—
Nearly two years' trial of the above Saddles in New York, has rendered comments unnecessary—confident of their utility he offers them to the public, that they may decide on their superiority.

The Laporte Bridles are constructed in such a manner as to curb the most vicious Horse without injuring him, and with perfect case and safety to the rider. They are well adapted for Ladies, and persons not in the practice of riding, as it gives them full power over their Horses in cases of fright,—
They can also be applied to Harmers of every description. Also, for sale, an assortment of Superior STEEL and PLATED INTER and STEELING.

and PLATED BITTS and STIRRUPS. N. B. Gentlemen can be accommodated with Spring Saddles for trial, if required. june 15-tf

Public syles.

BY COMLY & TEVIS, Auc'rs. No. 73 MARKET STREET.

PACKAGE SALE.

Oa Wednesday morning, the 19th inst. at nine o'clock,

o'chek,

60 packages of Goods, including an entire invoice of Linens, just received per the ship Crisis, from London, consisting of 4 4 and 9-8 Porter
Sheetings, Brown and Bleached Imitation do.
Irish Linens, Drillings, Ducks, Osnaburgs, &c. Also, at the same time, a few bales Superior Choe Thread. Terms at sale.

DRY GOODS.

On Saturday morning, the 22th inst. at 9 o'clock, will be sold, on a credit,

An extensive assortinent of DRY GOODS, suit-

REAL ESTATE.

At the Merchant's Coffee House, on the 25th inst. at half past 7 o'clock in the evening.

The Country Residence formerly belonging to Charles Bieck, Esq containing about 30 acres of land, the buildings new and stone—the siing an extensive view of a thickly settled country The said estate is in Montgomery county, about 12 miles from the city, near the middle road leading to Newtown. 30 or 40 acres, with a small tenement thereon, can be had in addition, if required. The terms of payment will be made very easy. Comly & Tevis,

E. C. BREEDIN,

TTORNEY and COUNSELLOR AT LAW A TTORNEY and Courts and practices in the Courts of Jefferson, Berkley, Frederick and Lou-down Counties; and in the High Court of Chancery, for the Winchester District.
He also attends the Bars of Hagers Town, Maryland, and Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, Com-mon Pleas and Supreme Courts. June 15-1

COPYING PRESSES.

COPYING PIESSES, of various sizes, with Screws or Rollers, made by the Subscriber The greatest objection to these Presses formerly was the high price, and their habitity to get out of order—this has been remedied by making them on cheap and simple principles. The Screw Press will be found useful for a variety of purposes as well as copying, the upper and under surfaces be-ing of Cast-fron, and turned perfectly even, may be used in taking impressions for be used in taking impressions from Drawings, Type, &c. and as a Seal Press. They will be sold cheaper than those imported, and wrought ron is substituted instead of cast, where they are likely to break. They will be warranted, and may be returned if they do not give satisfaction.

ADAM RAMAGE,

Library street. Two English made Presses for sale cheap —Co pying Presses repaired and put in order june 15

Hugh Downing,

CABINET, Chair and Venetian Blind Maker,
No. 36 North Second attacks, between Market and Arch, opposite Coumb's alley. Having just commenced business, he flatters himself by promptande and neatness in the by promptitude and neatness in the execution of all orders entrusted to him, to merit a share of

Old Columbian Coach Line, FOR NEW-YORK.

Through in Twelve Hours.

VIA Birdentown and South Amboy, and only 30 miles land carriage, over a gravel tumpike. First one leaves the upper side of Mark 1 street Pies one leaves the upper side of Mark variety what, every moraning at 6 o'check, and arrives in New York by steam boat Olive Branch, at six o'check same evening. Breakfast and dise on board. Fare only $4.

Second line seaves the same wharf every day,

Second line teaves the anne whart every day, (Sundays excepted) at 12 o'clock. Take coach at Bordentown, proceed to Perry's Hotel, South Amboy, where they lodge, and from thence by steam boat to New-York, where they arrive at 10 o'clock next morning. Pare only $2 50.

This line is inferior to none between the two cities as the coaches are all new, good horses, with ties as the coaches are all new, good horses, with careful drivers. The proprietors therefore solicit a share of public patronage.

For seats apply at Yohe's Hotel, North Pourth street, C. Badey, U.S. Mail and Citizens Coach Office, No. 30, south Third street, and at the steam boat office, No. 3, Market street.

John Bowman, Joseph E. Fisher, 3. MENTS FOR Chester Bailey, Wm. Arnel & Co.

FIRE ENGINE. PIRST rate Fire Engine, built by Perkins A Bacon in 1817, of the new construction, throw-ing two streams of water, and warranted in complete repair, for sale. Apply to BENJAMIN KITE, Jr. No. 20, North Third street.

1

No. 20, North Fifth street. JAMES HANSELL, No. 5, North Sigth street. may 11-6t JEHU WARD.

CLOCK and WATCH MARCH, No. 42 Mortes CLOCK and WATCH MARCH, No. 42 Martin Control at the safe, and assertment of warranted Watches, has for safe, an assertment of warranted Watches, together with Chains, Seals and Keys, of various descriptions. Also, Silver Table and Tea Spoons, at reduced prices. Glocks, Watches, &c. repaired on the most reasonable terms, and warranted to aug 18—4f aug 18-if

LEATHER STORE. BRAHAM WINNEMORE, at No. 55 Prins at acts of Philadelphia, has comstantly on id, m. assortment of LEATHER, which he can spose of as low, for cash or approved notes, as n be obtained in the city.

MECHANICAL WONDER. MECHANICAL WONDER.

THE citigens of Philadelphia went in crowds to see the Mechanical Museum when it was exhibited here, and more recently to the famous Androides of Mr. Haddock, and wiltingly paid for their admission: and hundreds travelled to Chesmut Hill and gave their dollar to see the ingenious contrivance of Redheffer. Who has not heard of the automaton, that could play chess, and of the other which was made to articulate words? both so celebrated in Europe. And who would not give a half eagle to see them? but all these worders are surpassed by a piece of Mechanism now in this city, passed by a piece of Mechanism now in this city, which is far more curious, splendid and surprising which is far more curious, splendid and surprising than any that have been exhibited for money. This wonderful specimen of art consists in a beautiful golden bird, wrought to the life, and co-vered with brilliant plumage richly imitated in enamel. The beholder first sees only a superb enamel. The beholder first sees only a supero box of gold and precious stones, ornamented with exquisite enamel painting; from this box the bird rises, and moving his head and wings in the most natural manner, he chirps his salutation and then pours out a song as rich in melody as that of the sweetest among the feathered choir, and after en-tertaining the auditor with this delightful music, tertaining the auditor with this delignitud music, vanishes suddenly from sight, leaving the spectator wrapt in pleasing astonishment. And how much does it cost to see this prodigy? The best of all is, it is shown freely without cost or charge, to all those whose good fortune leads them to purchase lottery tickets, halves or quarters, at

Gibbs' Lucky Office,

No. 43, South Third Street, Philadelphia.
N. B. It is reported that this elegant production was purchased at a large price by a subscription raised among a number of respectable mechanics, and presented by them to its present owner, in token of their acknowledgment of the great departed that have found in purchasing their advantage they have found in purchasing lottery tickets at his truly lucky office.

P. Canfield's Official Prize List.

UNION CANAL LOTTERY—TENTH CLASS. NOS. 17327, $1,000

15067, 8781, 100

1.857, 12980, 50

2381, 12867, 15544, 2870, 20

17463, 13522, 19544, 2870, 20

All sold (as usual) at Forture's Home, P. Canfield's Office, 127, Chesnut street. 85,000-85,000

These two splendid little fortunes, are now float ing in the wheel of the 10th class, Union Canal Lottery, and may be drawn on TUESDAY next, the 15th drawing, which takes place at Washington H II, precisely at half past 2 o'clock. There are floating in the wheel numerous other prizes, some of which must be drawn.

Tickets $7, shares in proportion. For sale in a great variety of numbers, at Fortune's Home.

P. Canfield's Office, 127, Chesnut street.

* The CASH will be paid for all prizes sold at this office, as soon as drawn. june 15-1t THE SATURDAY MAGAZINE, PUBLISHED by E LITTELL, No. 74 South Se-cond Street, Philadelphia; and by R NORRIS HENRY, No. 97 Pearl Street, New York. CON-TENTS.—Miscellusy—Thoughts on Letter Writing. The Devil's Ladder; Turkish Administration of Justice; Sketches of Society; Anecdotes of the Dutchess of Kingston.—Variety—Curious Specimen of Popular Presching.—Poetry—Song.

june 15-11 PORTER, ALE and CIDER. THE Subscriber informs his friends and the public, that he continues to bottle PORTER, ALE and CIDER, of the choicest quality, for home consumption or exportation, at his stand No. 108 FRANKLIN COURT, in Market street, between Third and Fourth. JOHN C. RUHLMAN.

Third and Fourth.

may 25-6m BENJAMIN RICHARDSON. LATE from Sheffield, File Manufacturer and Cutler, No. 77 SOUTH SECOND STREET, and Forks, Razors of the first quality, warranted for use, Seissors made to order or pattern. Cut-lery, of every description, ground, polished and repaired in the best manner, and at the shortest Illades, of the best cast steel, put in Penknive handles, and warranted good; Table knives and focks repaired, either with new blades or han-### dies; Old Files re-cut and made as new, oct 6-tf FANCY CHAIRS.

THE Subscribers have on hand, a large assort-ment of FANCY CHAIRS, made of the best materials, which they will sell low for Cash, at materials, which they will sell low for Cash, a No. 50 CHESNUT STREET, Philadelphia.

GEORGE C LENTNER. JOHN PATTERSON

Tobacco, Snuff and Segars MANUFACTURED on reasonable terms by the Subscriber, at the North East Corner of Callowhill and Front Streets; where those having numanufactured Tobacco on hand will find it their interest to apply,

N. B.—The above articles, of a good quality, for april 20—6m°

Silk, Cotton and Woollen Dyer. S. WILLIAMSON, No. 38, North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, respectfully informs the Dey Good Merchants, that he still continues the above business, of Dying French and Canton Crapes, Levantines, Mantua and Florence Silks, Sattina, Velvets, Gauzes, Sewing Silks, Ribands, &c. and restores Silks to their original colours, Hombazets, Hombazeens, Poplins, Broad Cloths, Sponged, and every article of Clothing.

S. W. flatters himself, from his long experience in the above business, all those who may favor him with their orders he hopes he will be able to give general satisfaction. jan 12-6m general satisfaction.

Cassimeres, Waterloo Shawls Dyed, Pressed or

A. NICHOLLS, Saw-Maker,

No. 118 South Front STREET,

A8 lately commenced manufacturing SAWS of various descriptions, such as Cast steel and German Hand and Pannel Saws, Cast steel and Ger German Hand and Fannetsaws, assisterand German Iron-back Saws, Brass-back Saws, &c. Wood Saw Webs, Breaking, Turning and Chair Webs, Lock and Key-hole Baws, Circular Saws, &c. &c. Circular Saws, with Spindle complete, got up in the neatest manner.

Cotton Gin Saws, made to any pattern or order.

All the above flaws, in point of temper and workmanship, is warrented superior to any imported, which will be add, wholusale or retail, cheap for seah. Also, on hand, a Stack of MECHANOS TOOLS, in general.

feb 2-4f

Interesting Narrative.

The New-Bedford Mercury furnishes an inter-esting narrative from Capt. Bennet, of his capture by the pirate Benefadas, his sufferings, and provi-Con the 9th of January, Capt. B. arrived and an chored under Point Homane, for the purpose of obtaining vegetables for his crew, most of whom were sick with the scurvy. Early the next morning he handed with one boat. Seeing no inhabitants, he, with his boatswain, went about half a antis, we, with his boatswain, went about half a mile into the country, when they were suddenly surrounded by about twenty Spaniards, made prisoners, and sent under a strong guard for the interior. The rest of the boat's crew, seeing this, made for the boat, and fortunately escaped, one man only being alightly wounded. Capt B. was told by the party who took him, that their object was to convey him to the strong hold of Benebedas, 20 leagues in the interior. After excessive travelling on mules, a distance of about 50 miles, over mountains and through almost impassable swamps, he arrived at the river Lebo, and at dark swamps, he arrived at the river Lebo, and at dark was carried about 2 miles from the path into a swamp, where he found an encampment of about 250 soldiers, commanded by an old Cacique.—This detachment appeared to be a wandering parthis detachment appeared to be a wantering par-ty, having no provisions, and being otherwise in a wretched condition. Here was held a council of war, and it was agreed to put Capt. B. and his boatswain to death immediately, least they should escape in the night. Capt. H. remonstrated against this cruel conduct, declaring that he was an American, but to no purpose—they only laughed at his entreaties, and asked if Capt. Russell* and Capt. Clark, &c. were not Americans? Through the influence of an officer, however, with whom Capt. B. duence of an officer, however, with whom Capt. B. was acquainted, they agreed to spare their lives until morning. Having put a strong guard (of about twenty) over them, the soldiers went to their different watch fires. Between the hours of nine and ten, the party were alarmed by the discharge of one hundred carbines, at not more than fifteen yards distant. This fire proceeded from a body of Patriot troops, who had come upon them by surprise, and on their rising from the ground the Patriots kept up a constant fire and cut them down by dozens. Fortunately for Capt. B. his guards were all either killed, wounded, or deserted, which gave him a chance to escape. Accordingly he and his boatswain crawled under the cane breaks about half a mile, and concealed themselves. The firing continued about three quarters of an hour. The attack was so sudden that Capt B. could not then learn by whom it was made, and therefore thought it most prudent to keep concealed and if remaillet to feel his was hard to the shied could not then learn by whom it was made, and therefore thought it most prudent to keep concealed, and if possible to find his way back to the ship. Considering himself in great danger of being discovered in his place of concealment, by the numerous hordes of dogs that infest this country, Captain B. consulted with his boatswain on the best measures to be adopted. It was concluded to endeavour to regain the sea shore, distant about 10 miles, as they judged they might secrete themselves more securely among the rocks that bordered on the sea. Accordingly, with this intent, little." they set forward, groping their way, (the night was very dark) sometimes on their hands and knees, over rocky mountains and swamps, and through streams of water—bruising and tearing their bodies in a most shocking manner; their only means of guiding their course was by following the current of rivers. Capt. B. relates that while fording a river they aroused the dogs in a camp at a few yards distance, and that they were oblig-fording a river they aroused the dogs in a camp at a few yards distance, and that they were obligated to remain perfectly quiet in the water for half an hour, until all was again still. At day light, discovered the sea shore, and concealed themselves in a cavity of the rocks, during the whole day. As soon as it was dark, commenced their journey as nearly as they could calculate for Point Romaine, in hopes to find the ship there. After travelling the whole night, encounting difficulties scarcely less than those of the night preceding, at day light in the morning arrived at the top of a mountain, from which they discovered the point where they left the ship, 10 miles distant. Fear-ful least they should again fall into the hands of Benebedas's men, they concealed themselves men, they resolved to put all at hazard, and about 9 o'clock, renewed their journey. About 12, arrived at Point Romaine and found the ship had gone!—Their situation now appeared hopeless indeed:—All the miseries they had endured, were now surpassed by the anguish of their disappointment. Their only possible chance of escape was in reaching Aruco, distant 20 miles; and after having rested about an hour, they continued their journey for Aruco. On this routs the travelling increases. having rested about an hour, they continued their journey for Aruco. On this route the travelling was good, being over a sand beach. They arrived at Aruco about dark, and found the ship, she having been taken by a Patriot sloop of war. The ed at Aruco about dark, and found the sing, she having been taken by a Patriot sloop of war. The town of Aruco was then in possession of the Patriots, who received them with the utmost hospitality, who received them with the utmost hospitality and business. From General Priotor, the Patriot commandant, Captain B. states that he received every possible kindness and assistance that his situation required; and attributes to the numane exertions of General P. the preservation of his life and that of his fellow sufferer—they hav-been three days without austenance, their bodies dreadfully lacerated and reduced by hunger and fatigue. They proceeded with the ship to Valpa raiso, where Capt B. wrote a letter to the Supremo

Director, informing him of his misfortunes, and of the very great humanity he had experienced from General Prictor. There was a rumour current at Valparaiso pre vious to Capt B's leaving there, that the monster Benebedas had been taken and brought to St. Jago, where he was to be shot.

Capt. Bennet reports that during his voyage he has cruized among the Marquesus, Society, and Friendly Islands, and discovered some Islands of Friendly Islands, and discovered some Islands of considerable extent uninhabited and abounding in wood, water, cocoa nuts, fish and green Turtle-valuable places for the resort of ships that visit these seas—both as affording supplies and the means of curing the sick.

* Capt. Russell of the ship Hero of Nantucket who fell a victim to the treacherous barbarity of Benchedas, at Aruco, on the 8th March, 1821.

FROM TEXAS .- A gentleman who has ately been on an exploring tour in the province of Texas, has furnished the following interesting facts relative to the situation of the country. He represents the condition of the people as miserable in the extreme; industry is scarcely known mong them; and business of every deseription at a stand. Although possessed of one of the finest and most fertile portions of the globe, yet agriculture is en tirely neglected, and, to a person accustomed to civilized life, they present a picture literally berdering on starvationas breadstuffs are very scarce and dear; and, like the natives of the forest, they depend almost entirely on the chase for a scanty subsistence. At St. Antonio, a place which has once been a wealthy and populous city, nothing but wretchedness was visible. That place is garrisoned by was visible. That place is garrisoned by about 75 soldiers, who were nearly desti-tute of ammunition. The people of that place have once been in a state of ease and affluence, but in consequence of the soldiers of the Spanish and Republican armies having been quartered on, and pillaging them, for several years, together with their own indolence, they are now reduced to the most abject state of po-

IMPORTANT.

The following intelligence is conveyed in a letter from an intelligent American now in Eng-land, dated April 29, 1822.

"You will find from the parliamentary proceedings that the government is at last compelled to give up Peel's Bill, the Chancellor having intimated that he should probably, this week, propose a measure to enable the Bank of ingland still to pay in one pound notes, which were declared illegal by Peel's Bill, in May, 1820. This is enough to satisfy any one who has watched the effects of that Bill and the conduct of the Ministry, that they find it impossible to persevere in that measure, and that the food gates of paper modey will be again opened-the consequence must be an immediate rise in the prices of every thing here. Iron, Copper, and all the rough materials of the articles made in this neighbourhood, will start first; provisions next; and labour, which has been very much reduced; you will find that henceforward we shall be buying on a rising instead of a fallng market. The prices of Cotton, Tobacco, &c. will also rise, and this will bring down exchange with you, assisted by the return of the gold which has been accumulating in this country for three years, which will be driven out again by the paper money, and will return to other countries, to increase the quantity of the circulating medium, and raise prices there also. A season of speculation and apparent prosperity is about to revisit us; trade will grow very brisk again; the credit system will revive; banks and bankers, both here and with you, will lend money freely; business paper will wonderfully increase in quantity, and being easily discountable will cause a monstroug addition to the circulating medium, and as I said before, will raise the prices of every thing. There appears at present to be some misunderstanding between the Bank and the Ministry; but when these lovers have got over their pouting spell, and made up their minds to act in concert, (which they must do, for neither can stand without the other,) we shall know to a certainty what the plan of proceeding is, and if paper is resolved upon, he that foresees the consequences and can take advantage of the markets before the prices rise, will make money. Iron has already advanced a VIOLENT DEATH OF GEN. LONG. A letter received in Boston, from an American gentleman in the city of Mexico, dated 9th of April ast, communicates the death of Gen. Long. The writer states: "Since the adoption of the present writer states: "Since the adoption of the presen government, which is decidedly monarchical, and ntolerant in religion, General Long, with his offiintolerant in religion, General Long, with his offi-cers and soldiers, have declined further service; and admitting the undoubted right of the people to frame their government, have demanded remu-neration for their services, and permission to leave the country. I found Gen Long in this city, with a few of his officers, engaged in settling their claims. The General had brought them, with great perseverance, nearly to a close, and a favorable issue; when, yesterday morning, about eight o'clock, he proceeded to the quarters of Colonel O'Ricley, (which are in the inquisition) to consult with him on the subject. The general was alone, and as he entered the gate, a cadet on sentry shot him though the lungs, and he expired immediate. him though the lungs, and he expired immediately. A veil of mystery hangs over this black transaction, which time alone can unmask."

Colombian Republic - Letters from Caraccas. dated May 17th, contain some particulars of the movements of the royalists previous to the late engagement which terminated in the total defeat and flight of Morales. It appears to have been his intention to surprise Maracaybo, and with that view he caused two divisions of his army to cross the Lake from the Puertos in boats obtained frog: the Indians. One of these divisions, commanded by colonel Ballesteros, amounting to upwards of 300 men, was completely annihilated—not a single man escaping? This victory, however, was gained with the lamented loss of the brave and distinguished Hooss. Ballesteros also was killed. On learning the fate of this action, Morales commenced his retreat from Los Puertos, and reached a place about ten leagues from Pedregal, whither he was followed and completely defeated by the Republic followed and completely defeated by the Republican divisions commanded by Colonels Penango, Rayes, Vargas, and Torres. It was General Soublette who routed the division in which Balleste was killed.

By an arrival at Baltimore on Monday from Maricaybo, it is ascertained that a grand salute had been fired at the latter place, reported to be in con-sequence of Quito having declared itself in favor of the Colombian government.

A person named Thomas Williams was convict-A person named Thomas Williams was convicted at the Circuit Court of Baltimore on Saturday last, of robbing Mr. Hoffman of a sum of money in notes of the Bank of Utica, N. Y. The culprit displayed considerable admittees in appropriating the money to his own use. Mr H. and he put up at the same Inn. On the day previous to the rob bery in question, the former missed some money from his pocket book, and on retiring to rest, which he did at an early hour, he used the precaution to deposit his pantaloons, in the fob of which he had put a roll of notes amounting to nearwhich he had put a roll of notes amounting to near-ly five hundred dollars, and also his pocket book under his pillow. In the morning when dressing himself, he felt his fob and found his roll of notes as he supposed) secure During the afternoon, having received information of the dangerous illness of his son, and that his immediate return was imperative, he went to the stage office to take his cassage, and on taking the roll from his fob to pay his fare, he found that the notes had been substi-tuted by a bundle of papers about the same bulk. Williams being suspected, it was ascertained on enquiry, that he had left the inn, and taken a different route from that which he pretended he was going, and had passed some of the notes, which were easily identified, Mr. H. having previously put his name on the back of them. The shift was put his name on the buck of them. The thirf was immediately pursued and taken before he got out of the city. The jury returned a verdict of guilty without leaving the box. A motion was made by the prisoner's counsel for an arrest of

Canine Sagacity...—A few weeks since a negro boy, who was ploughing in a field of Mr. Brandon's in this neighbourhood, stopped his horse to fit something about the grears. While in this situation, the horse took fright, and started at full speed towards that part of the fence at which he had been brought in; the point of the coulter of the plough struck, and became finally fastened to the pantalons of the boy, (which were of buck-akin,) and the horse had drawn the boy, in this situation, about eighty yards towards the fence, which was yettwenty yards before him, the pannel about five rails high, for which he was evidently making, when a large mastiff of Mr. Brandon's voluntarily sprung forward, seized the horse by the upper lip, and held him securely until the boy was released.—Huntaville Paper.

FROM CANTON -- Accounts from FROM CANTON.—Accounts from to to the 8th of February, state the English fleet were still laying at List. The differences between the Heng he chants and the supercargoes of three pany's ships had not been adjusted though three several deputations had been adjusted three several deputations had been to Lintin for that panyers. sent down to Lintin for that purpose a English declining all negociations a subject, and referred them to the camander of the frigate Topaz, and the tish government for a settlement of difficulties. The Hong Merchants preparing to go down for the fourth to but it was the general opinion that the would return again as they went, and a the governor would eventually the the only condition offered by the by which the fleet would agree to me to Canton.

even

seint

disp

ical

exis

on t ed.

Pa.

to Canton.

Calcuma, P. 11

In the confusion with the British, the Cappear to have overlooked the disturbance the opium, and the two deposit ships have ed their sales and deliveries at Whampon agree of consternation seems at one period to have seized the contractors, heretofer equalled, for it is reported that an European of hitherto unquestionable respectability, convenient to throw up some large barafeiting the deposits or carnest-monies bind the bargains. The holders, however, in good spirits, and hope to realize about the lars a chest for Patna, and 1650 dollars for the convenient of the convenient to the conveni

THE FRANKLIN.—Letters from Valueraiso, of the 11th February, state, that to U. S. ship of the line, Franklin, was the visited by crowds of admiring people, at that the officers were on the best browith those of the British sloop of war som, and frequently dine together. To reports of differences existing better Lord Cochrane and General San Marie repeated, and some remarks is the are repeated, and some remarks introduced as to the disposition of the Chillian who are represented as "united in the detestation of the Spanish despetien, ready to sacrifice their lives in resident their old masters:" yet the same with who thus carries the patriotism of the is who thus carries the parties that habitants of Chili to the very climat, purchabitants of Chili to the very climate, purchabitants of habitants of Chin to the very too ignored ly assures us, that they are " too ignored ly assures from foreign to potism to domestic tyranny is not cales lated to improve their condition."

Piracy. - The brig Busy, Allen, from Warren, (R. I.) was captured on the 164 ult. by two piratical schooners near the De-ble Headed Shot Keys, and plundered all her stores and cargo except lumber— The captain and mate were robbed of all their clothing, watches and cabin furnity, leaving the captain no other apparel to a shirt and trowsers. After cutting by cables, and thereby losing the anchors to marauders left the vessel, carrying and both boats and throwing overboard ever moveable they could by their hands and they also robbed the vessel of all her six they could conveniently take with their and having carried off the cook and cabinate and having carried off the cook and exist. boy, and beat and maimed the master and mate, they quietly departed. In this demantled situation, Captain Allen ari at Havana.

ANOTHER MURDER. The following is the Postscript of a letter h Augusta, (Geo.) dated May 30:-

Day before yesterday in the morning duel was fought on the opposite side of the river in S. C. between a couple of your men from Milledgeville, lawyers by profesion, by the names of Hepburn and Howard the former of which fell mortally wounded being shot through the abdoinen, and expired the following morning. The cause the duel originated from some disrespec or insult from Howard towards a your lady at a public ball; which was no more than refusing to give or withdraw his hand from the lady in performing some part of a cotillion where it was necessary their hands should be connected, which Howard asserts was in retaliation for the same insult put on him by the lady in the same way a few moments previous. lady being a partner to Hepburn, he resent ed the supposed insult, challenged Howard, fought and fell.

Longevity .- A man named Samuel Welsh, Longevity.—A man named Samuel Wein, a stated to be now living at Bow, New-Hampshire, who has advanced more than eight months is the one hundred and twelfth year of his age. He sat born in Kingston, Sept. 1, 1710. His father sat from Ipswich, Mass.—was a soldier in the signal Louisbourg, and died immediately after his return to Kingston. His grandfather emigrated with the earliest settlers of Ipswich, from England. Mr. Welsh has resided in Bow, nearly 50 years. His tife has been marked by no extraordast. Mr. Welsh has resided in Bow, nearly 50 year-His life has been marked by no estuardissi-vicissitude; he never was in bittle, never in the army—he never was endangered by the Indian, who frequently visited Kingston after his bith and took captives; nor was he ever sick but once div-ing his long life, and then of a slight fever. He was always temperate. Through life he has been a man of hard labour; and appears to have been of a retiring disposition, preferring the most of scure retreats to the noise and the vexations and dangers of society. dangers of society.

John Johns, one of the pilots of this per, while on a cruize off Tybee, at the time to brig Panthea hove in sight on Sunday last launched his row boat from the deck of the pilot boat with the intention of boarding her. The brig was several miles off, when a sea struck the boat, half filled and see ly capsized her; another sea soon after struck her, which filled and sent her tothe bottom, leaving Johns to the mercy of the waves. He fortunately secured the with which, and his skill in swimming a supported himself. In this manner he fetted his way until almost exhaust when the brig having come within half, hallooing and raising an oar, in doing with he was seized with a cramp in the area attracted better attracted notice, and a boat was lowered his assistance, which brought him on be The time during which he was imm in the water was an hour and a half, what is very aingular a large shark coe ed within a short distance of him what the whole time, and followed the brig she had gone on board. [Sarannah Green counts from Ca lary, state the A sying at Lists in the Hung a regoes of the a been adjusted by that it is a state of that present the that purpose, gociations on a hem to the co settlement of Merchants or the fourth to opinion that the ventually vield of iters from Valuery, state, that he ranklin, was disniring people, as on the best tra-sloop of war he existing bean meral San Maria remarks introde " united in the the same writeriotism of the is ery climar, pronny is not calco ondition." usy, Allen, from tured on the 164 ners near the Deand plundered of except lumber.

PROVIDENTIAL PRESERVATION.

ere robbed of all d cabin furniture, After cutting her g the anchers, the el, carrying away ; overboard every their hands ages, sel of all her wik ed the master as ted. In this die in Allen arriv RDER.

ript of a letter from in the mornit in the morning posite side of the awyers by pro ourn and Howard ortally would The cause of towards a youn hich was no e or withdrawh performing sont onnected, which etaliation for the y the lady in the previous. The pburn, he resent allenged Howard Samuel Welth, is w. New-Hampshin, eight months in the of his age. He was O His father was oldier in the siegued liately after his rendfather emigrated wich, from England w., nearly 50 years on extraordanty title, never in the cred by the Indian, matter his bith and re sick but once dura slight fever. He a stight fever. He ugh life he has been pears to have been rring the most obtained the vexations and

SERVATION. ilots of this pert e, at the time the t on Sunday last m the deck of the I miles off, when filled and ness sea soon after d sent her to the he mercy of the ecured the are in swimming he is manner he but most exhausie e within hail, b np in the arm he ght him on bee e was im and a bail, and

The Evening Post.

PHILADELPHIA.

Saturday. June 15, 1822.

The Grand Quaterio of " The Crestion," which was performed at Washington Hall, on Monday evening last, to a very numerous and gratified assembly, it is expected, will be repeated in the course of a few months.

We are pleased to learn, that the Rev. Dr. Somerfield, whose pulpit oratory has excited universal admiration, is fast recovering from his indisposition, and hopes are entertained that he will shortly be able to resume his useful labours.

COMMUNICATION.

There is at present and has been for some time a strange altercation among the Doctors of this city. Whether it proceeds from emulation or jealousy, I am altogether at a loss to say; but the existence of the fact is undeniable. It is carried on too with a degree of malice and animosity al most unparallelled. To such a pitch has it attain. ed, that one physician can scarce open his mouth to express an opinion or give advice on a medical subject, without incurring the danger of criticism and censure from his brethren in the profession If one has by careful attention and observation dis covered a method by which he can expedite the cure or lessen the sufferings of a fellow-being, he publishes it to the world in a haughty and ostentations manner, lavishing on himself the most extravagant and hyperbolical praises, calculated to perpetuate his glory and immortalize his name. Another, equally censurable, taking him up on false ground, exposes him to public view as ignorant and contemptible, and reproaches him it the most insulting and abusive language.

Nor is this controversy confined to private per sons. Practitioners in the same institution, and professors in the same college are deeply involved in it, and not unfrequently expose each other in their public lectures. All this I know to be the case. It is a circumstance no less lamentable than true, and one one which casts an indelible stigma not only on the persons concerned, but also on the prefession at large. Those who now consider it their glory to engage in a litigation so fmitless and unprofitable, little think that at some future period, they may bring on themselves everlasting infamy and contempt. It is a very common and just remark, that if Doctors cannot agree, who can? and it is a pity that physicians, in whom so much confidence is reposed, should thus lay themselves open to the ridicule and derision of the vulgar .- I hope this friendly hint will have its in-AMICUS MEDICORUM.

Gen. Cadwallader, of this city, has been appoint ed by the Secretary of War, President of the Board of Visiters for the examination of the corps of Cadets, at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, which is now in session

TAVERN KEEPERS - All those Tavern-keepers whose Licences become renewable at the June Sessions of the Mayor's Court, and all others who are desirous of petitioning the Court for Licenses to keep Public Houses, are desired to achieve the court for Licenses.

Extract of a letter from Howana, dand May 24. Captain Biddle is still with us and well-his crew continues healthy; but we are threatened with a sickly season. Several pirates have been heard of to windward of Matanzas, and the Grampus has lately brought in an English brig found in possession of four piratical vessels.

Counterfeit five dollar Bills of the Union Bank of New London, are in circulation. They resem-ble in their general appearance, the genuine bill, but with the readily detected by good judges. The paper is of a darker shade, and the signature of the cashier is a clumsy imitation.

Counterfeit one dollar notes on the State Bank at Morris, N. J. have just made their appearance. They are well executed, and would be readily taken by the best judges, if not aware of them—They are dated Jan. 1st. 1813, letter C. in favor of humb. of Joseph Cutter.

Letters from South America mention that some of our manufatures are highly approved there. It is also said Waltham cotton cloth has been imitated in England, and shipped to this country with the Bank of the United States of the denomination of same stamp. The same the Wilmington Stripes The same remark has been made of Progress of Improvement.—The citizens of Sa-lem, (N. J.) contemplate the establishment of a Steam Heat to run between that place and Philaiia; also the erection of a Steam Mill for grinding wheat, by which it is calculated an im-mense saving will arise to the farming interest in

The New-York Statesman says, we have information which justifies us in stating with confidence, that a commercial Treaty between the United States and France has been signed by Mr. Adams and M De Neuville

Capt. Johnson, of the brig Eliza Morrison, ar-rived at Savannah, in the 5th mat from Port au Prince. He left that place about the 27th ult and informs that every thing was tranquil in the Island when he left it President Boyer had returned from the Spanish part of the Island. Great preparations had been made by his subjects for his reception, by the erection of triumphal arches, &c. which, however, were rendered useless by his enthe tring the city privately by a different route from that expected. St. Marks was declared a port of entry from the 25th May. Lumber was to be admitted for one year, free of duty. Markets dull for all kinds of American produce, and money

A lad of about twelve years of age, son of Mr. Bankson Taylor, of this city, was drowned on Wednesday afternoon, while bathing in the Delaware. The body has not been found.

The postscript of a letter dated May 3d, received by a respectable mercantile house in the city of Charleston, from their correspondent in Liverpool, 42ys-" A letter is just received in town from a nember of Parliament, stating that Ministera have letermined to tay an additional duty on Cotton.—The rate is not finally settled but it will be either Id. or 2d. per lb. to take effect the 5th of July.

The Wheeling Gazette (of Bruoke county, Va) states on the 1st mat, that "the season thus far has been remarkably fine; grain of every kind looks well in this neighborhood, and is unusually forward."

Miratok . F Lipe.

TIMES, TIS FORM AND PRESSURE Earthquake .- A severe shock was fest at St. Ja go de Cutia on the 8th ult. which lasted about 30 minutes—tables were overset, glasses broken and the walls of some buildings fell in. Three youths convicted of wantonly assaulting

Three youths convicted or wantonly assaulting passengers with stones, &c. have been sentenced at Baltimore to undergo a solitary confinement in the jail for 30 days; to be kept on breal and water; fined five dollars each, and to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid. General Brown.—We are happy in being able to announce, that this gallant officer has so far reco-vered his health as to be on his way to Washington

-where, as Commander in Chief, he is to take up his quarters. Good Times.—A printer at the westward of Boston, informs his readers that "Touth will ap-pear next week," whether for the first time in his aper he does not say; and an eastern bookseller

The Caterpillers and Grasshoppers are stated, in the Montreal pipers, to have commenced their ravages at that place, on every description of ve-

Among the works advertised for publication i Paris, we observe a periodical paper "Le Petit Courier de Lucifer," or Susan's Little Poet Boy. or, in English

An arsenal has just been finished at Bermuda which has cost the British government more than a million of dollars, and another million is to be ex pended in the construct secure the anchorage. ruction of a " break water'

A man named William Porter, was executed a Wilmington, N. C on the lat inst. for burglary.

Benjamin Brown, a slave belonging to Mr. Aarolustis, of Newport, (Del.) was convicted of bur glary, which by the laws of that state, is a capital offence. On Thursday the 6th inst, the prisoner was brought before the court and sentence of death was pronounced against him—he is to be ex-ecuted at New Castle on Saturday the 29th of this Accident - A boat lately upset at Quebec with persons on board, all of whom were drowned.

Two young girls were killed by lightning in the room of a house where there were eight persons, at New-Balem, (N. H.) on the 1st inst. Four others were struck down, but recovered from the

A good haul -One hundred and eighty two Stur geons were lately taken at one tide at Quebec: the smallest of these royal inhabitants of the waters were 50 lbs and one of them weighed 213 pounds French weight Shocking Murder.-A man named Railiff Ray

with murdering his mother-in law by shooting her through the neck, A Tood was lately found alive in a stone taken from the Canal at Lockport; its place of confine-ment was distant six inches from the exterior sur-face of the rook.

The steam boat Superior arrived at Buffalo on Tuesday last week. This was her first trip, and she was welcomed into the harbour by a national salute, which she returned. She left Buffalo on the Friday following, and on her return was to receive most of her freight, belonging to the American Fur Company at Blackrock.

A man named John Callerty has been committee to the prison at Monty-al, accused of the murde of a person named John Oats, in the county of Ros common, Ireland, in the month of July last.

The Liverpool Mercury, in an article assailing Cobbett any that the London Times, a short time With such patronage as this, we should suppose the publisher might stand a chance to lay up some thing for a contingent fund, in these changeable

Imprisonment for Debt.—It was decided at the last Gircuit Court of Vermont that an act of the Legislature, authorising the liberation of a debtor from is contrary to the restriction in section ten of the first article of the constitution of the United States, as impairing the obligation of a contract, and there

Lamentable Occurrence.-It is stated in the Bal-timore Patriot of Saturday, that about 11 o'clock on the evening previous two persons went on board one of the bay packets lying in the harbour, and in a frolicsome mood began wrestling on the deck, while the captain, Lewis, was askeep in the cabin. Awakened and alarmed by the noise he came on deck, drove one on shore, and in the scuffle, the other fell overboard and was drowned, who on examination, proved to be his own son!

Smith Randall, convicted at Tuscaloosa, (Alab.) fifty dollars, has been sentenced to be hung at Tuncaloosa on the 7th of June.

The Providence Gazette, says, that fourteen cords of wood were burnt on the passage of the Steam Boat Connecticut from New-York to that

Count Survilliers, (Joseph Bonaparte) daughter and suite, are new at Bellmont Hall, Schooley's Mountain Springs, on a visit for a few weeks.

Jn. Mathieu Barry, Esq. captain in the Imperia Army, and now one of the suite of Count Survilliers, is stated to have been put down in the Will of the Emperor Napoleon for 200,000 francs, as a of the Emperor Napoleon for 200,000 francs, as a proof of his high satisfaction for the fidelity of that very gallant officer.

Squirrel Shooting - During the month of May 6000 aquirrels are stated to have been shot in Mercer county, Pennsylvania.

Prusing Fruit Trees.—The month of June is considered the best period of the year for pruning fruit trees. Great care, however, ought to be taken not to hack or chop the limbs, but to remove them by a fine and sharp saw, close to the trunk or branch from which they are intended to be separated.

A committee of the legistature of Kentucky have made a proposition, to remove from office a Judge of the highest state court, for no other rea

Between the 29th May and 4th June, 78 ves-els arrived at Quebec, from Europe, conveying 1,262 passengers.

A Turtle of a very uncommon kind has been taken at Beaufort, N.C. It measures, in length, 7 feet 4 inches—in width, from the end of one fin to the end of the other, 9 feet-and 2 6-12 feet through the body. The back is black, which, with its sides, are 8 squares; the under part is black and white, and the bill resembles that of the hawk

The East Lothian Scotch banking-house, has stopped payment. The immediate cause is said to be, the manager having absconded with the sum of 42,000% from its coffers. A commission of bankruptcy, is, we understand, to be opened im-mediately.—Liverpool Paper.

The Savannah Georgian says, that Mr. Henry Clay is spoken of as United States Ambassador to Mexico, and Mr. Poinsett to Chili, to Buenos Ayres

A grand Jury at a Court held in the county of Bucks, in this state, recently made the following

resentation:
The Grand Jury inquiring for the County Bucks, have had occasion to observe in the dis-charge of their duties at the present term, that a practice which has long been a subject of com-plaint still continues to prevail, viz.: Justices of Peace, under a mistaken view of their duties, too criminal prosecutions; in consequence of which, individuals are subjected to much embarrassment, and the county to unnecessary costs.

Extract of a letter from an English gentleman, lately travelling through New England
"Larrived here (Montreal) on the 1st instant. The country I traveled through, I found well worthy of seeing. The scenery in general is very rugged and wild, and the industry and perseverance of the inhabitants. compliciously evinced in their of the inhabitants, conspicuously avinced in their mounting up gradually to the tops of their hills, with their enclosures and cultivation. The expertness, particularly, with which they use the ough, in their rough and rocky muuntains, riking, and I think the majority of the co in OLD England might be taught many useful les-sons from your New England practices, in that respect"

From the Hallowell Advocate, June 8.

FIRE IN THE WOODS — For two or three weeks past, the woods in this section of the State, have been on fire, and the damage done is very great in Litchfield several fields of grain have been entirely human over heights of woodland. In Litchfield several fields of grain have been en-tirely burnt over, besides a quantity of woodland. In the western part of Augusta the damage is also considerable: a number of large tracts of wood-land have been destroyed. In Phillips, Somerset county, it has destroyed a great amount of pro-perty, among which are several dwelling houses, barns and mills. We also fearn that a number of dwelling houses have been distroyed in Clinton, in this county. The fire continues to rage in every this county. The fire continues to rage in every direction, and buffles all efforts to check it.

Breach of Promise of Marriage.—Last week Hetty McWharton obtained a verdict of 700 dol-lars in the Circuit Court at Waterloo village, N. Y. the 9th instant, another young man was subjected in 384 dollars, for violating his " troth" in similar in 300 dollars, for violating his "troth" in similar circumstances. If these numerous examples do not check the evil, they at least give a portion to many virtuous girls, whose poverty, it is more than probable, was the only cause of their being

Serious Accident - Wednesday forenoon a well dressed young woman, apparently about 15 years of age, attempting to cross Grand street, Newly, and in falling she struck her head first upon a large stone, which cut a gash of nearly or quite three inches in length; sor was it until after she had lain in a senseless and bleeding at at for near

On Saturday, the 1st inst. Ansel Truby, George Pelter, Hiram Chase, Daniel Loomis, and Morgar Comstock went into the Delaware river at Walton Delaware county, New-York, to bathe. Truby was discovered to be strangling, when Chase swam to his assistance. The drowning man seiz-ed him by the hair, and with much difficulty be extricated himself and reached the shore.—Loomis extricated himself and reached the shore.—Loomis then made the attempt, but he also was seized by Truby, and with great exertions broke from his grasp. About the same time Felter came to his assistance; he seized Felter and kept his gripe upon him until they both sunk together to the bottom. At this parilous moment, a captain Newbury, who had been shting on the bank, threw off his cost and shoes, estaining of the Gold's sake, don't let them drown, begand into the water and made his escape; but the drowning made made a fatal grasp upon Newbury. When taken out. made his escape; but the drowning man made a fatal grasp upon Newbury. When taken out, blood was gushing from the mouth and nose of Newbury, which led to the supposition that Truby had clenched him by the neck. An aftempt was made to resuscitate them, but without effect.

Quebec, May 28 .- The weather has been very warm this day and yesterday, the thermometer hav-ing risen to-day as high as 80, although on Friday night last, it froze so hard that ice of the thickness of a dollar was seen on water contained in vessel which had been exposed during the night. Sha have made their appearance in our market.

Melancholy.—About half a mile from this place, on Tuesday last about 4 o'clock P. M. as Jacob Hency was returning from Philadelphis, with the team of Jacob Gamber, a flash of lightning struck the ground at a small distance from the team, stunned him so that he fell, and the wagon which was heavy loaded passed over his body. He aurvived only about 10 hours after.

Oxford, (N. Y.) May 20.

SINGULAR THEFT .- A footman a not having a conscientious idea of meum et tuum, took them into his possession, drove them directly past the house of their owner and sold them at a short distance further on, put the money in his pocket and es-

SHIPWRECK.

Extract of a letter from Elizabeth City, N. C. dated

"On Friday evening, the 31st ultimo, the achr. Southampton, of Winton, Luke Brown, master, from Philadelphia, for this purt, went on shore in Pantico Sound, on a shoal making out from New Inlet, five miles south-east of Roanoke Island. The weather was fine, and has continued to be so since though I understand the is abandoned to since, though I understand the is abandoned to the wreck master, and is advertised to be sold on the 15th inst. She has no cargo of consequence. It is said she was insured a few days before she left Philadelphia. If we may judge from reports his shipwreck is of a very suspicious nature."

CAST-TRON TONDSTONES. - At Vienna it is common to cast slabs for the lids of Moveable types are inserted in the moulds to trace the inscription, and a basso relievo of emblematic design mostly adorns

The harbour of Kinsale, in Ireland, memorable to Americans, on account of the destruction of the Albion packet, lies in the county of Cork, and almost in the southern extremity of the island. It is a bold and capacious harbour, and is navigable for large ships twelve miles above the town; it is situated at the mouth of the river Bandan, and is furnished with a dock for the use of the royal navy, the entrance to which, is defended by a fort. But the coast of Ireland is surrounded by impregnable rocks, and may well be denominated an iron bound coast. What then must have been the sensations of our unhappy countrymen, while made the sport The harbour of Kinsule, in Ireland, memorable coast. What then must have been the sensations of our unhappy countrymen, while made the sport of the tempest, to behold nothing but barriers of rocks opposed to its fury; what thoughts must have occupied their minds in the gloomy interval, between the certainty of death and the rapid approach of that event! How feeble is the strength of man, when opposed to that of Omnipotence.

SWEET OIL—8 baskets, 3,50 bas.

DEMIJOHNS—140 1 gall. Wickere 1, 45 ca 280 bbl.

COAL—2500 bushels English, 28 a 284 bush.

7,50 gro. Porter, 7,50 gro. Porter, 7,50 gro. Porter, 7,50 gro. Porter, 9,50 cm. Porter, 7,50 gro. Porter, 7,50 gro. Porter, 9,50 cm. Porter, 9,5 in, when opposed to that of Omnipotence.

The Paris papers mention a singular ac-Having stopped to change horses at post house near the summit of a steep hill, the carriage, left for a moment with out driver or horses, was set in motion by the wind, and literally running away with itself, descended with great velocity to the foot of the hill, where it overturned .-There were ten passengers within, only one of whom, a child of six years, was unhurt; the rest were more or less injured, and the leg of one broken.

A few weeks ago, I noticed a circumstance in domestic economy, which I hope will find a place among modern phenomena. Four hens were employed in protecting one broad of chickens: and each defended them with equal courage against the approach of danger. It was a circumstance which I have never observed in the country, and I think augurs favourably for reproduction.

COMMUNICATION

There is in preparation, and will speedily be produced at the Tivoli Theatre, a new Drama, called the "Legend of Montrose; or, the Highland Secr," taken from the take of that title, by the author of Waveriy, Rob Boy, Kenilworth, &c. &c. and dramatized by a young gentleman of this city. We have been favoured with a perusal of it, by the author, and with does defined to the internal of the product of the product of the product of the product of the perusal of it.

the author, and with the deference to him, must acknowledge that it is drawn out in a very inge-nious and masterly style. He has, through the whole piece, endeavoured to resemble the novel as closely as it would admit, without injuring the

To enter into a long detail of its merits, would be useless, as it is written from that very popular work; the worth of which has been duly appre cisted by our citizens generally.

TALMA, THE PRENCH ACTOR. Extract of a letter from Paris.

" It is rather remarkable that the actor, who can "It is rather remarkable that the actor, who can represent the heroes of antiquity with superior talent should in private life entertain a taste for the atrical pomp. At his country residence at Brunoy, he lives with the ostentation of a marquess or petty prince. He constantly keeps a number of workmen employed in making new erections or alterations on his grounds. The people of the village salute him with fire works and rejoicing, as though he were a lord of the manner of ancient family; and it appears that Taima is much gratified by this kind of homage. Though nearly sixty years of age, he retains all the vigour of his talent, and his retirement would be a great loss to the French drama, It is however probable that public admiration, and the considerable emolument be derives from his profession, will induce him to continue on the stage for many years to come "

DRAMATIC SUMMARY.

TIVOLI THEATRE.-The entertainments an nounced for this evening, consist of the Tragedy of Douglas, or the Nobie Shepherd, and Sylvester Daggerwood, or the Mad Actor. drama, written by a gentleman of this city, called the Legend of Montrose, from the last Waverly novel, is said to be in rehearsal.

BALTIMORE—Dimon & Pythias, or the Test of Priendship, and the musical romance of the Forty Thieves, were presented on Wednesday eve, at Mr. Wood's benefit—The new opera of the eve, at Mr. Wond's benefit. The new opera of the Enterprise, or Love and Pleastre, was amounced for last evening. Mr. Gooper is engaged and will appear next week.

New Yong.—A new mulo drama now in rehearsal, is to be performed on Monday evening, called the Grecton Captive, or the Fall of Athens. It is activated to Mr. Nosh, and is founded upon the present struggle between Greece and Turkey. The proceeds of last Wednesday evening, were appropriated to the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Baiskers—the tragedy of Pizarro, and the farce of the Romp, were the performances—Mr. Baisker per-Romp, were the performances—Mr. Banker per-sonated the part of Rolla, and Mrs. Banker that of Priscilla Tomboy. Last evening, the tragedy of Fredolfo, and the melo drama of the Miller and his Men, were the performances for Mr. Wood-

FOREIGN.-Madame Catalini gave her first Concert at the Argyle Rooms on the 24th of April Her voice is said to be as clear, firm and extensive as ten years ago. The educe of the Courier says, in singing Rebe's air, she justified all that had been ever said or imagined of her executive powers. The swell of her voice from the plano to the trumpet came like a burst of tempest on the ear; and while she was sporting with the gentle passages, her noble countenance all relaxed into passages, her hobbe countenance all relaxed into smiles, her voice twittering and joyous like that of a lark in a glorious vernal sky. All that were present suspended their breath that not one of such exq sinte noise might be lost. The room was so crowded that all the places in the orches ra not assigned to the musicians, were occupied by gen-tlemen, and even ladies who were glad to have days since, travelling from this village, and a lew miles from it, came in contact with several young cattle in the public road, and not having a conscientious idea of meum et discovent Garden Theatre, Mr. Young was advertised for King Lear; Edgar, Kemble, Cor advertised for King Lear; Edgar, Kemble, Cor delia, Miss Foote.—A young woman inving at New Castle, became deranged after seeing the play of Othello—she frequently exclaimed on the viblaina murder her? This says the London editor, is a sort of parallel case with that of the American Sentinel, who lately shot Othello, remarking at the time, that "no negro rascal should kill a white woman in his presence."

AN Elegant Country Retreations to the Backs of the Delaware,

Public Dale Report.

J. and W. LIPPINCOTTS & CO. Auctioneers

From June 8th, to 14th, 1822.

SUGAR—35 hhds. St. Croix, $11,00 a 12 60 cwt
8 do. Porto Rico, 8.60 a 9,00 —
31 bbls. do 8,60 a 10,60 — 10 do New-Orleans, 26 box White Havans, 14,00 a 14,05 —
82 do Brown do 9,50 —
[Terms—8500 or 1000, 60 days; upwards, 90]
MOLASSES—55 hbds. Havans, 30 gal. 22 do. do. 32 - 3 hhds. 3 ts. (good) 33 j s 35 -HONEY-70 hhds. & tierces do. 56 4 564 --COFFEE-20 bags 8t. Domingo, 26 a 264 lb.

Havana, TEA-4 Jehests Pouchong, PEPPER-10 bags, [100, 6) days; 200, 90; upw. 4 m.]
[Terms. § 100, 6) days; 200, 90; upw. 4 m.]
[RUM-9 hids. Jamaica, 4th & 5th proof, 95 a 1.00
[WHISKEY-3 hids. 5 bbis Appir, 1 at pr. 35 gal.]

17 do.

WHISKEY—3 blide, 5 9008 Apper, 18 2 220 box.

RAISINS— 00 boxes Bloom, 2,15 a 2,20 box.

12 boxes Muscatel, 2,50 —

15 do. 225 —

CHALK—28 blids. 5,75 a 5,874 blid. CHALK—29 bloss. 5,75 a 5,87 j bld CHOCOLATE—40 boxes, 60 j baces Boston, No. 1 11 j a 12 lb. COTTON—8 bales, New Orleans, 12 — SALT PETRE—12 keys London Refined, 8)— MUSTARD—37 kegs, 6 doz. ca. do. in bottles 1,10 doz. SWEET OIL-8 baskets,

10 seroons St. Duminge,

From the Peterslary Intelligencer.

THERE is a peace within the breast,
A holy, pure, and heavenly flame—
A calm acronity of rest

Por those who love the Saviour's name.

To windering souls a safe retreat
Prom sin with all its direful trains;
"The rock of ages," to the feet
Of those who love the Saviour's name.

A light to cheer the gloom of death,
A power to break the monster's reignVictory awaits the latest breath

Of those who love the Saviour's name. Then why should Pilgrims fear the tomb!

For even there was Jesus lain: He rose, but left a long perfume To those who love the Saviour's name.

--MARRIED,

On the evening of the 8th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Roche, Mr. PETER FRANCE GAI, originally from Italy, Merchant, to Miss ANN JANE B. daughter of the late Capt John Tree, of this city. On Thursday, the 30th off, by the Rev. Frequence Orburn, Mr. THOMAS G. POLLIN, to Miss SARAH BRILZ, daughter of Mr. Adam Britz, all of the Northern Liberties.

O. Thursday evening by the Rev George

O. Thursday evening by the Rev George Boyd, Mr. JOHN K. BRINGHURST, printer, to Mess ELIZ (BETH CULNAN. On the 12th inst. by the Rev. Thomas Griffin, Mr. JONATHAN ROSE, to Miss FLIZA SUR-

MAN.
On Thursday evening, the 13th inst. by the Rev.
J. J Janeway, Mr CHARLES S. BOKER, to Miss
LYDIA A. STEWART, all of this city.

At the residence of Major Croghan, near Louis-rille, Ky. on the 17th ult Brig Gen. THOMAS S JESUP, Quarter Master General of the army of the U States, to Miss. CROGHAN, daughter of Major Croghan, and distance of the Company Major Groghan, and sister of Col. Wm. Groghan, the defender of Port Sandusky. In England, Mr. SPENCER WATKINS, aged 40, to Miss ELIZABETH SWITH, aged 16, and youngest sister of his son's first wife. He has had two former wives, both of whom are now living. and married to other men. His present wife by this union, has at once became a wife, a mother,

DIED.

On the 8th inst. Mrs. ELIZA CONOVER. late of Charleston, S. C. eldest daughter of John Dorsey, Esq. deceased,
On Monday morning last, at six o'clock, Mr.

On the evening of the 7th inst. Mass PLUZA-BETH SLACK, of this city

On Saturday morning last, Mr. JACOB B!CK Thursday morning, Captain JOHN MAT-

ALMANAC

18.2. JUNE	Risea	Neta. 11	Moan's
15 Saturday,	4	7 251	 IN EXEL
16 Sunday,	4 3	7 25 11	50
17 Monday,	4 3	7 25 0	26 2 55 40
18 Tuesday,	4 35	7 25 1	10
19 Wednesday,	4 35	7 25 2	7 10 - 10 2
20 Thursday,	4 35	7 25 2	53 19 - 13 x
21 Priday,	4 35	7 25 3	45   2   3   5

TIVOLI THEATRE.

Near the Centre Square, Market street. This Evening, June 13th, will be presented, the celebrated Trageds of DOUGLAS, OR THE NOSLE SHEPHERD

The entertainment to conclude with Sylventer Daggerwood, or the Mad Actor

MRS. MYRING,

RESPECT FULLY means of freeds and the public, that the has taken that engant Cotry Residence in F inkfird, form the the free for try of Mr. Robert Smit, and now belonging Thomas Leiter, E. q. for the purpose of accommodating BOARDERS for the Summer seas or by the year. The known healthforms a brauty of the situation, the excellence of the ter and other advantages which it is, access.

ter and other advantages which it p seess:
dess a further description unnecessary.

N. B. The Gate near the Hay Scales in E.

Schuylkill Navigation Inn.

THE Sub-ceiber, thankto, to passessed the properties of the properties of the passessed that he has made the best arrangements for accommodation, at his establishment on fistreet, at the N E corner of Schovlad The t, by the addition of a very commodates recorder will have constantly on hand, a stock the choicest Liquors, and hopes, by his a tention to those who may favour hun with their custom,

THOMAS GARNER.

VALUABLE STABLES.

FOR Sale or to Let, a range of Scale at Lot of Ground, on which the same to exceed, containing 54 leet front and 79 feet deep durate on the north sale of Gaskel Street, between 5 For board Fifth Streets, containing Stalts sufficient to 40 Horses, with Sueds attached the rate and Horses.

AN Elegant Country Retreat, attacte on the Borks of the Delaware, in above the Bristol, a short design above the Bristol and Brist he Borough of Bristol, a short distance above the Stean Boat Wharf. The int . 130 tect front on the New-York Road, and in depth on the Delaware 227 feet, with a large two story Brick House, three rooms on the first floor, and four well finished rooms on the second floor, with a well finished Kitchen adjuning. Also, on the premises, a large Stable and Chaen House, and the premises, a large Stable and Charli finite, and a scient quantity of Front Trees of every description. An indisputable title and immediate possessible can be given. For further particulars, apply at the office of S. PAGE AND SON, Brokers and Gonveyancers, No. 6, South Fifth Street.

GOOD LUCK.

NO 17327 a perze et $1000, ossan yesterday in the Union Canal Lettery, 10th class, was sold at Fortune's Home, 127 Chesnut-afreet, to a very worthy machanic of this city, who received the cash for his prize in an hour after the drawing

Fortune again at Port Gibbs.

NO. 7343 WHICH drew a Prize of nesday last, o the Pennsylvania State Lettery, was sold at GIBBS' Lucky Office, 44 South Third Street.

June 15—It

JOB PRINTING

BANK Checks, Law Blanks, Commercial Blanks, Policies of Insurance, Catalogues, Circular Letters, Lottery Hills. Lottery Tickets, Lottery Bills, Cards, and Hand Bills of every description, Neatly executed at a short notice, on very rea-

Atkinson & Alexander, No 53 Market street. HAVING purchased of JOHN J. MCRRIS, of the city of New-York, the sole and entire right of making and vending his newly invented SPRING SEAT and SPRING POINTED SADDLES, within the city and county of Philadelphia, offers them for Sale,

AT HIS SADDLE & HARNESS MANUFACTORY, No. 5 North Fifth street.

Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and see the principle on which they are constructed.—
Nearly two years' trial of the above Saddles in New York, has rendered comments unnecessary—confident of their utility he offers them to the public, that they may decide on their superiority.

The Laporte Bridles are constructed in such a manner as to curb the most vicious Horse withou injuring him, and with perfect case and safety to the rider. They are well adapted for Ladies, and Persons not in the practice of riding, as it gives them full power over their Horses in cases of fright.

They can also be applied to Harness of every description. Also, for sale, an assortment of Superior STEEL and PLATED BITTS and STIRRUPS.

N. B. Gentlemen can be accommodated with Spring Saddles for trial, if required. june 15-tf

Public syles. BY COMLY & TEVIS, Auc'rs.

PACKAGE SALE. On Wednesday morning, the 19th inst. at nine o'clock, 60 packages of Goods, including an entire invoice of Linens, just received per the ship Crisis, from London, consisting of 4.4 and 9.8 Porter Sheetings, Brown and Illesched Imitation do. Irish Linens, Drillings, Ducks, Osnaburgs, &c.

Also, at the same time, a few bales Superior Choe Thread. Terms at sale.

DRY GOODS.

On Saturday morning, the 22d inst. at 9 o'clock, will be sold, on a credit,
An extensive americant of DRY GOODS, suitad to the season.

REAL ESTATE. At the Merchant's Coffee House, on the 25th in at half past 7 o'clock in the evening.

The Country Residence formerly belonging to Charles Breck, Esq containing about 30 acres of land, the buildings new and stone—the situation is very elevated and delightful, commanding an extensive view of a thickly settled country. The said estate is in Montgomery county, about 12 miles from the city, near the middle road leading to Newtown. 30 or 40 acres, with a small tenement thereon, can be had in addition, if required. The terms of payment will be made very easy.

The terms of payment will be made very easy. Comly & Tevis, Auctimeers.

E. C. BREEDIN,

A TTORNEY and COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Harper's Ferry, Vugmin; practices in the Courts of Jefferson, Berkley, Frederick and Loudown Counties; and in the High Court of Ulancery, for the Winchester District.

He also attends the Bars of Hagers Town, Ma ryland, and Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, Comon Pleas and Supreme Courts. June 15-1

COPYING PRESSES.

Screws or Rollers, made by the Subscriber The greatest objection to these Presses formerly was the high proce, and their liability to get out o order—this has been remedied by making them on cheap and simple principles. The Screw Press will be found useful for a variety of purposes as well as copying, the upper and under surfaces being of Cast Iron, and turned perfectly even, may be used in taking impressions from Drawings, Type, &c. and as a Seal Press. They will be sold cheaper than those imported, and wrought iron is substituted instead of cast, where they are likely They will be warranted, and may be returned if they do not give ADAM RAMAGE, Library street.

Two English made Presses for sale cheap —Copying Presses repaired and put in order—june 15

Hugh Downing, CABINET, Chair and Venetian Blind Maker, No. 36 North Second Street, between

Market and Arch, opposite Coomb's alley. Hav-ing just commenced business, he flatters himself by promptitude and neatness in the execution of all orders entrusted to him, to merit a share of public favour. june 15-6m Old Columbian Coach Line.

FOR NEW-YORK.

Through in Twelve Hours.

The Bordentown and South Amboy, and only 30 miles land carriage, over a gravel tompike. First one leaves the upper side of Mark t street what, every morning, at 6 o'check, and arrives in New York by steam boat Olive Branch, at six o'check same evening. Breaklast and dine on board. Fare only $4

Second line leaves the same wharf every day, (Similary excepted) at 12 o'check. Take couch (Sundays excepted) at 12 o'clock. Take coach at Bordentown, proceed to Perry's Hotel, South Amboy, where they lodge, and from thence by steam boat to New-York, where they arrive at 10 o'clock next morning. Fare only $2 50.

This line is interior to none between the two ci ties as the coaches are all new, good horses, with careful drivers. The proprietors therefore solicit a share of public patronage. For scats apply at Yohe's Hotel, North Fourth street, C. Bailey, U.S. Mail and Citizens Coach Office, No. 30, south Third street, and at the steam Office, No 30, south Third street boat office, No 3, Market street. John Bowman, Joseph E. Fisher,

1

Chester Bailey, Wm. Arnel & Co.

FIRE ENGINE.

A PIRST rate Fire Engine, built by Perkins & Bacon in 1817, of the new construction, throwing two streams of water, and warranted in com-plete repair, for sale. Apply to BENJAMIN KIPE, Jr.

No. 20, North Pith street.
WILLIAM SAVEHY,
No. 20, North Pith street.
JAMES HANSELL,
No. 3, North Sigth street.

may 11-6t

JEHU WARD,

CLOCK and WATCH MAKER, No. 42 Marke

O'LOCK and WATCH MARCH, No. 42 Marcet, het were Pront and Second, south side, has fur sale, an assortment of warranted Watches, together with Chains, Seels and Keys, of various descriptions. Also, Silver Table and Tea Spoons, at reduced prices. Glocks, Watches, &c. repaired on the most reasonable terms, and warranted to perform LEATHER STORE. BRAHAM WINNEMORE, at No. 55 Prins. STREET, Plaindelphia, has constantly on d, m. assortment of LEATHER, which he can se of as low, for cash or approved notes, as a obtained in the city.

MECHANICAL WONDER.

THE citigens of Philadelphia went in crowds to see the Mechanical Museum when it was exhibited here, and more recently to the famous Androides of Mr. Haddock, and willingly paid for their admission: and hundreds travelled to Chesnut Hill and gave their dollar to see the ingenious contrivance of Redheffer. Who has not heard of the automaton, that could play chess, and of the other which was made to articulate words? both so celebrated in Europe. And who would not give a half brated in Europe. And who would not give a half eagle to see them? but all these wonders are sureagle to see them? but all these wonders are sur-passed by a piece of Mechanism now in this city, which is far more curious, splendid and surprising than any that have been exhibited for money. This wonderful specimen of art consists in a his wonderful specimen of art consists in a beautiful golden bird, wrought to the life, and co-vered with brilliant plurnage richly imitated in enamel. The beholder first sees only a superb box of gold and precious stones, ornamented with exquisite enamel painting; from this box the bird rises, and moving his head and wings in the most natural manner, he chirps his salutation and then pours out a song as rich in melody as that of the sweetest among the feathered choir, and after ensweetest among the feathered choir, and after en-tertaining the auditor with this delightful music, vanishes suddenly from sight, leaving the specta-tor wrapt in pleasing astonishment. And how much does it cost to see this prodigy? The best of all is, it is shown freely without cost or charge, to all those whose good fortune leads them to pur-chase lottery tickets, haives or quarters, at Gibbs' Lucky Office.

No. 44, South Third Street, Philadelphia. B. It is reported that this elegant produc tion was purchased at a large price by a subscrip-tion raised among a number of respectable mecha-nics, and presented by them to its present owner, in token of their acknowledgment of the great advantage they have found in purchasing lottery tickets at his truly lucky office.

P. Canfield's Official Prize List.

UNION CANAL LOTTERY-TENTH CLASS NOS. 27.327, 81,000
NOS. 17.327, 81,000
15067, 8781, 100
18.7, 12980, 50
2381. 12867, 15544, 2870, 17463, 13522, 19544, 2870, 20
All sold (as usual) at Fortune's Home, P Canfield's Office, 127, Chesnut street.

85,000-85,000

These two splendid little fortunes, are now float ing in the wheel of the 10th class, Union Canal Lottery, and may be drawn on TUESDAY next, the 15th drawing, which takes place at Washing-ton II II, precisely at half past 2 o'clock. There are floating in the wheel numerous other prizes, some of which must be drawn.

Tickets $7, shares in proportion. For sale in a great variety of numbers, at Fortune's Home. P. Canfield's

Office, 127, Chesnut street,

The CASH will be paid for all prizes sold at this office, as soon as drawn. june 15—15 THE SATURDAY MAGAZINE,

PUBLISHED by E. LITTELL, No. 74 South Second Street, Philadelphia; and by R. NORRIS HENRY, No. 97 Pearl Street, New York. CONTENTS, —Miscellary—Thoughts on Letter Writing; The Devil's Ladder; Turkish Administration of Justice; Sketches of Society; Anecdotes of the Dutchess of Kingston—Farier—Curious of the Dutchess of Kingston.—Fariety—Curious Specimen of Popular Presching.—Poetry—Song. june 15-11

PORTER, ALE and CIDER. THE Subscriber informs his friends and the public, that he continues to bottle PORTER, ALE and CIDER, of the choicest quality, for home consumption or expertation, at his stand No. 108 FRANKLIN COURT, in Market street, between Third and Fourth. JOHN C. RUHLMAN.

BENJAMIN RICHARDSON, LATE from Sheffield, File Manufacturer and Cutter, No. 77 SOUTH SECOND STREET, fatigue. They proceeded with the ship to Valparaiso, where Capt B wrote a letter to the Supreme raiso, where Capt B wrote a letter to the Supreme has commenced manufacturing Files, Table Kniver and Forks, Razors of the first quality, warranted for use, Scissors made to order or pattern. Cut-lery, of every description, ground, polished and repaired in the best manner, and at the shortest notice. Ittades, of the best cast steel, put in Pen-knive handles, and warranted good; Table knives and forks repaired, either with new blades or handies; Old Files re-cut and made as new.

FANCY CHAIRS.

THE Subscribers have on hand, a large assort-ment of FANCY CHAIRS, made of the best materials, which they will sell low for Cash, at No. 50 CHESNUT STREET, Philadelphia GEORGE C LENTNER, JOHN PATTERSON.

Tobacco, Snuff and Segars MANUFACTURED on reasonable terms by the Subscriber, at the North East Corner of Callowhill and Front Streets; where those having numanufactured Tobacco on hand will find it their interest to apply.

N. B.—The above articles, of a good quality, for april 20—6m*

Silk, Cotton and Woollen Dyer. SwitaJamson, No. 38, North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, respectfully informs the Dry Good Merchants, that he still continues the above business, of Dying French and Cantor Crapes, Levantines, Mantua and Florence Silks Sattins, Velvets, Gauzes, Sewing Silks, Ribands, ac, and restores Silks to their original colours, Bombazets, Bombazeens, Poplins, Broad Cloths. Cassimeres, Waterloo Shawls Dyed, Pressed or Sponged, and every article of Clothing. S. W. flatters himselt, from his long experience in the above business, all those who may favor him with their orders he hopes he will be able to give general satisfaction.

A. NICHOLLS, Saw-Maker,

No. 118 South FRONT STREET,

A8 lately commenced manufacturing SAW of various descriptions, such as Cast steel an German Hand and Pannel Saws, Cast steel and Ger man Iron-back Saws, Brass-back Saws, &c. Wood Saw Webs, Breaking, Turning and Chair Webs, Lock and Key-hole Baws, Circular Saws, &c. &c.

in the neatest manner.

Cotton Gin Sawa, made to any puttern or order.

All the abuse Sawe, in point of temper and workmanship, is warranted superior to any imported, which will be sold, wholessle or retail, cheap for cash. Also, on hand, a Stock of MECHANIOS

SOOLS, in general.

Interesting Narrative.

The New-Bedford Mercury furnishes an inter-sting narrative from Capt. Bennet, of his capture y the pirate Benefedus, his sufferings, and proviential escape.

On the 9th of January, Capt. B. arrived and andential escape.

On the 9th of January, Capt. B. arrived and anchored under Point Homaine, for the purpose of obtaining vegetables for his crew, most of whom were sick with the scurvy. Early the next morning he landed with one boat. Seeing no inhabitants, he, with his boatswain, went about half a mile into the country, when they were suddenly surrounded by about twenty Spaniards, made prisoners, and sent under a strong guard for the interior. The rest of the boat's crew, seeing this, made for the boat, and fortunately escaped, one man only being alightly wounded. Capt B. was told by the party who took him, that their object was to convey him to the strong hold of Benebedas, 20 leagues in the interior. After excessive travelling on mules, a distance of about 50 miles, over mountains and through almost impassable swamps, he arrived at the river Lebo, and at dark was carried about 2 miles from the path into a swamp, where he found an encampment of about 250 soldiers, commanded by an old Cacique.—
This detachment appeared to be a wandering party, having no provisions, and being otherwise in a wretched condition. Here was held a council of war, and it was agreed to put Capt. B. and his boatswain to death impactable, least they should war, and it was agreed to put Capt. B. and his boatswain to death immediately, least they should escape in the night. Capt. B. remonstrated against this cruel conduct, declaring that he was an Ame rican, but to no purpose—they only laughed at his entreaties, and asked if Capt. Russell® and Capt. Clark, &c. were not Americans? Through the in-fluence of an officer, however, with whom Capt. B. fluence of an officer, however, with whom Capt. B-was acquainted, they agreed to spare their lives until morning. Having put a strong guard (of about twenty) over them, the soldiers went to their different watch fires. Between the hours of nine and ten, the party were alarmed by the discharge of one hundred earbines, at not more than fifteen yards distant. This fire proceeded from a body of Patriot troops, who had come upon them by surprise, and on their rising from the ground the Patriots kept up a constant fire and cut them down by dozens. Fortunately for Capt. B. his guards were all either killed, wounded, or deserted, which gave him a chance to escape. Accordingly he and his boatswain crawled under the cane breaks about half a mile, and concealed themselves. The firing continued about three quarters of an hour. The attack was so sudden that Capt B. could not then learn by whom it was made, and could not then learn by whom it was made, and therefore thought it most prudent to keep conceal-ed, and if possible to find his way back to the ship.

Considering himself in great danger of being discovered in his place of concealment, by the numerous hordes of dogs that infest this country, Captain B. consulted with his boatswain on the best measures to be adopted. It was concluded to endeavour to regain the sea shore, distant about 10 miles, as they judged they might secrete themselves more securely among the rocks that bordered on the sea. Accordingly, with this intent, they set forward, groping their way, (the night was very dark) sometimes on their hands and knees, over rocky mountains and swamps, and themselves are season of water-britising and tearing through streams of water—bruising and tearing their bodies in a most shocking manner; their only means of guiding their course was by following the current of rivers. Capt. B. relates that while fording a river they aroused the dogs in a camp at a few yards distance, and that they were obligat a few yards distance, and that they were obliged to remain perfectly quiet in the water for half an hour, until all was again atill. At day light, discovered the sea shore, and concealed themselves in a cavity of the rocks, during the whole day. As soon as it was dark, commenced their journey as nearly as they could calculate for Point Romaine, in hopes to find the ship there. After travelling the whole night, encounting difficulties scarcely less than those of the night preceding, at day light in the morning arrived at the top of a mountain, from which they discovered the point where they left the ship, 10 miles distant. Fearful least they should again fall into the hands of Benebedas's men, they concealed themselves the washe and warning muten with nunger, they resolved to put all at hazard, and about 9 o'clock, renewed their journey. About 12, arrived at Point Romaine and found the ship had gone!—Their situation now appeared hopeless inrived at Point Romaine and found the ship had gone!—Their situation now appeared hopeless indeed:—All the miseries they had endured, were now surpassed by the anguish of their disappointment. Their only possible chance of escape was in reaching Aruco, distant 20 miles; and after having rested about an hour, they continued their journey for Aruco. On this route the travelling was good, being over a sand beach. They arrived at Aruco about dark, and found the ship, she having been taken by a Patriot sloop of war. The having been taken by a Patriot sloop of war. The town of Aruco was then in possession of the Pa-triots, who received them with the utmost hospi-tality and kindness. From General Prietor, the Patriot commandant, Captain B. states that he received every possible kindness and assistance that his situation required; and attributes to the humane exertions of General P, the preservation of his life and that of his fellow sufferer—they hav-been three days without sustenance, their bodies dreadfully facerated and reduced by hunger and Director, informing him of his misfortunes, and of the very great humanity he had experienced from General Prictor.

There was a rumour current at Valparaiso previous to Capt B's leaving there, that the monster Benebedas had been taken and brought to St. Jago, where he was to be shot.

Capt. Bennet reports that during his voyage he has cruized among the Marquesas, Society, and Friendly Islands, and discovered some Islands of considerable extent uninhabited and abounding in wood, water, cocoa nuts, fish and green Turtlevaluable places for the resort of ships that visit these seas—both as affording supplies and the means of curing the sick. means of curing the sick.

* Capt. Russell of the ship Hero of Nantucket. who fell a victim to the treacherous barbarity of Benebedas, at Aruco, on the 8th March, 1821.

FROM TEXAS.-A gentleman who has lately been on an exploring tour in the province of Texas, has furnished the following interesting facts relative to the situation of the country. He represents the condition of the people as miserable in the extreme; industry is scarcely known among them; and business of every description at a stand. Although possessed of one of the finest and most fertile portions of the globe, yet agriculture is en tirely neglected, and, to a person accus-tomed to civilized life, they present a picture literally berdering on starvationas breadstuffs are very scarce and dear; and, like the natives of the forest, they depend almost entirely on the chase for a scanty subsistence. At St. Antonio, a place which has once been a wealthy and populous city, nothing but wretchedness was visible. That place is garrisoned by was visible. That place is garrisoned by about 75 soldiers, who were nearly destitute of ammunition. The people of that place have once been in a state of east and affluence, but in consequence of the soldiers of the Spanish and Republican armies having been quartered on, and pil-laging them, for several years, together with their own indolence, they are now reduced to the most abject state of poverty.

IMPORTANT.

The following intelligence is conveyed in a letter from an intelligent American now in Eng-land, dated April 29, 1822.

"You will find from the parliamentary proceedings that the government is at last compelled to give up Peel's Bill, the Chancellor having intimated that he should probably, this week, propose a measure to enable the Bank of ingland still to pay in one pound notes, which were declared illegal by Peel's Bill, in May, 1820. This is enough to satisfy any one who has watched the effects of that Bill and the conduct of the Ministry, that they find it impossible to persevere in that measure, and that the flood gates of paper mortey will be again opened-the consequence must be an immediate rise in the prices of every thing here. Iron, Copper, and all the rough materials of the articles made in this neighbourhood, will start first; provisions next; and labour, which has been very much reduced; you will find that henceforward we shall be buying on a rising instead of a fall-ing market. The prices of Cotton, Tobacco, &c. will also rise, and this will bring down exchange with you, assisted by the return of the gold which has been accumulating in this country for three years, which will be driven out again by the paper money, and will return to other countries, to increase the quantity of the circulating medium, and raise prices there also. A season of speculation and apparent prosperity is about to revisit us; trade will grow very brisk again; the credit system will revive; banks and bankers, both here and with you, will lend money freely; business paper will wonderfully increase in quantity, and being easily discountable will cause a monstrous addition to the circulating medium, and as I said before, will raise the prices of every thing. There appears at present to be some misunderstanding between the Bank and the Ministry; but when these lovers have got over their pouting spell, and made up their minds to act in concert, (which they must do, for neither can stand without the other,) we shall know to a certainty what the plan of proceeding is, and if paper is resolved upon, he that foresees the consequences and can take advantage of the markets before the prices rise, will make money. Iron has already advanced a little."

VIOLENT DEATH OF GEN. LONG. A letter received in Boston, from an American gentleman in the city of Mexico, dated 9th of April last, communicates the death of Gen. Long. last, compunicates the death of Gen. Long. The writer states: "Since the adoption of the present government, which is decidedly monarchical, and intolerant in religion, General Long, with his officers and soldiers, have declined further service; and admitting the undoubted right of the people. to frame their government, have demanded remuneration for their services, and permission to leave to frame their government, have demanded remu-neration for their services, and permission to leave the country. I found Gen Long in this city, with a few of his officers, engaged in settling their claims. The General had brought them, with great perseverance, nearly to a close, and a favora-ble issue; when, yesterday morning, about eight o'clock, he proceeded to the quarters of Colonel O'Rieley, (which are in the inquisition) to second o'clock, he proceeded to the quarters of Council O'Ricley, (which are in the inquisition) to consult with him on the subject. The general was alone, and as he entered the gate, a cadet on sentry shot him though the lungs, and he exogred immediate-ly. A veil of mystery hangs over this black transaction, which time alone can unmask an arrival at Baltimore on Monday from Maricaybo, it is ascertained that a grand salute had been fired at the latter place, reported to be in con-sequence of Quito having declared itself in favor of the Colombian government.

Colombian Republic - Letters from Caraccas dated May 17th, contain some particulars of the movements of the royalists previous to the late engagement which terminated in the total defeat and flight of Morales. It appears to have been his in-tention to surprise Maracaybo, and with that view he caused two divisions of his army to cross the Lake from the Puertos in boats obtained from the Indians. One of these divisions, commanded by colonel Ballesteros, amounting to upwards of 300 men, was completely annihilated—not a single man escaping! This victory, however, was gained with the lamented loss of the b-ave and distinguished Heoas. Ballesteros also was killed. On learning the fate of this action, Morales commenced his retreat from Los Puertos, and reached a place about ten leagues from Pedregal, whither he was followed and completely defeated by the R-publican divisions commanded by Colonels Penango, Rayes, Vargas, and Torres. It was General Soublette who routed the division in which Ballestecolonel Ballesteros, amounting to upwards of 300 ho routed the division in which Ballest ros was killed.

A person named Thomas Williams was convict. ed at the Circuit Court of Baltimore on Saturday last, of robbing Mr. Hoffman of a sum of money in notes of the Bank of Utica, N Y. The culprit displayed considerable advoitness in appropriating the money to his own use. Mr H. and he put up at the same lnn. On the day previous to the robbery in question, the former missed some money from his pocket book, and on retiring to rest, which he did at an early hour, he used the precaution to deposit his pantaloons, in the fob of which he had put a roll of notes amounting to nearly five hundred dollars, and also his pocket book under his pillow. In the morning when dressing himself, he felt his fob and found his roll of notes (as he supposed) secure. During the afragroup notes of the Bank of Utica, N Y. The culprit (as he supposed) secure During the afternoon, having received information of the dangerous illness of his son, and that his immediate return was imperative, he went to the stage office to take his passage, and on taking the roll from his fob to pay his fare, he found that the notes had been substituted by a bundle of papers about the same bulk tuted by a bundle of papers about the same bulk. Williams being suspected, it was ascertained on enquiry, that he had left the inn, and taken a different route from that which he pretended he was going, and had passed some of the notes, which were easily identified, Mr. H. having previously put his name on the back of them. The third was immediately pursued and taken before he got well out of the city. The jury returned a vector of out of the city. The jury returned a verdict of guilty without leaving the box. A motion was made by the prisoner's counsel for an arrest of Canine Sagacity...—A few weeks since a negro boy, who was ploughing in a field of Mr. Brandon's in this neighbourhood, stopped his horse to fit something about the gears. While in this situation, the horse took fright, and started at full speed towards that part of the fence at which he bad been brought in; the point of the coulter of the plough struck, and became finally fastened to the pantalons of the boy, (which were of buckskin,) and the horse had spawn the boy, in this situation, about eighty yards towards the fence, which was yettwenty yards before him, the pannel about five rails high, for which he was evidently making, when a large mastiff of Mr. Brandon's voluntarily aprung forward, seized the horse by the upper lip, and held him securely until the boy was released.—Huntsville Paper.

FROM CANTON,-Accounts from ton to the 8th of February, state the English fleet were still laying at La The differences between the Hung chants and the supercargoes of the pany's ships had not been adjusted though three several deputations had sent down to Lintin for that perpose, English declining all negociations on subject, and referred them to the mander of the frigate Topaz, and the h tish government for a settlement of a difficulties. The Hong Merchants on preparing to go down for the fourth to out it was the general opinion that the would return again as they went, and a the governor would eventually view the only condition offered by the Bart by which the fleet would agree to to Canton.

In the confusion with the British, the Ca appear to have overlooked the disturbance the opium, and the two deposit ships have a ed their sales and deliveries at Whampon, gree of consternation seems at one period but to have seized the contractors, heretofore to have seized the contractors, heretofore be equalled, for it is reported that an European to of hitherto inquestionable respectability, acconvenient to throw up some large barrais feiting the deposits or carnest-monies bind the bargains. The holders, however, in good spirits, and hope to realize about 130 a lars a chest for Patna, and 1650 dollars for the

THE FRANKLIN.-Letters from Val raiso, of the 11th February, state, that a U. S. ship of the line, Franklin, was the visited by crowds of admiring people, a that the officers were on the best tere with those of the British sloop of war he som, and frequently dine together. In reports of differences existing Lord Cochrane and General San Mark are repeated, and some remarks istrated as to the disposition of the Chil who are represented as " united in the detestation of the Spanish despotion, and ready to sacrifice their lives in resident their old masters:" yet the same writer who thus carries the patriotism of the is habitants of Chili to the very climat, perly assures us, that they are "too igner to perceive that a change from foreign potism to domestic tyranny is not calcalated to improve their condition.

Piracy. - The brig Busy, Allen, from Warren, (R. I.) was captured on the 164 ult. by two piratical schooners near the Da-ble Headed Shot Keys, and plundered of all her stores and cargo except lumber.
The captain and mate were robbed of all their clothing, watches and cabin furnitue, leaving the captain no other apparel the a shirt and trowsers. After cutting he cables, and thereby losing the anchors, the marauders left the vessel, carrying and both boats and throwing overboard ever moveable they could lay their hands spea. They also robbed the vessel of all her sele they could conveniently take with then; and having carried off the cook and cabisboy, and beat and maimed the master me mate, they quietly departed. In this demantled situation, Captain Allen arrived

ANOTHER MURDER. The following is the Postscript of a letter for

Day before yesterday in the morning luel was fought on the opposite side of the river in S. C. between a couple of your men from Milledgeville, lawyers by pro sion, by the names of Hepburn and Howard, the former of which fell mortally wound being shot through the abdomen, and expired the following morning. The cause the duel originated from some disresp or insult from Howard towards a young lady at a public ball; which was sothing more than refusing to give or withdraw his hand from the lady in performing some part of a cotillion where it was necessar their hands should be connected, which Howard asserts was in retaliation for the same insult put on him by the lady in the same way a few moments previous. The lady being a partner to Hepburn, he resent ed the supposed insult, challenged Howard, fought and fell.

Longevity.- A man named Samuel Weish, is Longevity.—A man named Samuel Weiln, a stated to be now living at Bow, New-Hampshim, who has advanced more than eight months in the one hundred and twelfth year of his age. He was born in Kingston, Sept. 1, 1710. His father was from Ipawich, Mass.—was a soldier in the sieged Louisbourg, and died immediately after his return to Kingston. His grandfather emigrated with the earliest settlers of Ipawich, from England. Mr. Welsh has resided in Bow, nearly 50 years. His life has been marked by no extraordan? His life has been marked by no extraordinal viciositude; he never was in b tile, never in a samp—he never was endangered by the india. army—he never was endangered by the Indian, who frequently visited Kingston after his birth and took captives; nor was he ever sick but once during his long life, and then of a slight fever. It was always temperate. Through life he has been a man of hard labour; and appears to have here of a retiring disposition, preferring the most obscure retreats to the noise and the vexations and dangers of society.

PROVIDENTIAL PRESERVATION.

John Johns, one of the pilots of this port, while on a cruize off Tybee, at the time the brig Panthea hove in sight on Sunday last launched his row boat from the deck of the pilot boat with the intention of bearding her. The brig was several miles off, when a sea struck the boat, half filled and nest-ly capsized her; another sea soon after struck her, which filled and sent her tothe bottom, leaving Johns to the mercy of the waves. He fortunately secured the sers with which, and his skill in swimming is supported himself. In this manner he had fetted his way until almost exhausted when the brig having come within hall, by hallooing and raising an oar, in deing which he was seized with a cramp in the arm he attracted notice, and a boat was lowered to his essistance, which homeshables as heart. his assistance, which brought him on be The time during which he was into in the water was an hour and a balf, and what is very singular a large shark con ed within a short distance of him many the whole time, and followed the brig shall had gone on board. [Savannah Orar.

Th The

was per evening sembly, course We Somerf versal disposi shortly

The s stran jealouexisten on too most u ed, the to exp

subjec covere cure o publis tions f travag perpet Anoth false g norant the me sons. profes in it, their | stigen fruitle future lastin and ju can?

No

selve gar.ende Ge ed b T

much

rs from Value, and the hallin, was the heat ten popula, and the best ten popular together. In isting between San Meria marks introduced in the Chilian in the chilian is a mitted in th united in the despotism, sul e same write tism of the is y climat, grae " too igneral rom foreign de y is not cales y, Allen, from rs near the De cabin furnitu r apparel the er cutting be carrying away verb eir hands spea of all her sails ke with then; cook and cal the master and

d. In this di-

t of a letter from the morning site side of the uple of young n and Howard tally wound nen, and expirwards a your h was pothin or withdrawhi rforming some nected, which the lady in the revious. The urn, he resent enged Howa amuel Welsh, in New-Hampshire, but months in the his age. He was ter in the singuel ely after his relative emigrated the from England, nearly 50 years o extraordinary the, never in the d by the Indians, steen his bith and ter his birth and ick but once dur-slight fever. He is life he has been liation for the

RVATION. ts of this port at the time the n Sunday last, the deck of the n of bearding niles off, whe led and near-ea soon after sent her to the mercy of the ared the com swimming be nanner he bufst exhausted, within hail, in doing which in the are to was lowered to t him on board was immended nd a half, and shark continuing the brig when he brig when he was he was

n life he has been are to have been ng the most observed to vexations and

The Evening Post.

PHILADELPHIA.

Saturday, June 15, 1822.

The Grand Ocatorio of " The Creation," which was performed at Washington Hall, on Monday evening last, to a very numerous and gratified assembly, it is expected, will be repeated in the course of a few months.

We are pleased to learn, that the Rev. Dr. Somerfield, whose pulpit oratory has excited universal admiration, is fast recovering from his indisposition, and hopes are entertained that he will shortly be able to resume his useful labours.

COMMUNICATION.

There is at present and has been for some time a strange altercation among the Doctors of this city. Whether it proceeds from emulation of jealousy, I am altogether at a loss to say; but the existence of the fact is undeniable. It is carried on too with a degree of malice and animosity al most unparallelled. To such a pitch has it attain ed, that one physician can scarce open his mouth to express an opinion or give advice on a medical subject, without incurring the danger of criticism and censure from his brethren in the profession If one has by careful attention and observation dis covered a method by which he can expedite the cure or lessen the sufferings of a fellow-being, he publishes it to the world in a haughty and ostenta tions manner, lavishing on himself the most extravagant and hyperbolical praises, calculated to perpetuate his glory and immortalize his name Another, equally censurable, taking him up on false ground, exposes him to public view as ignorant and contemptible, and reproaches him in the most insulting and abusive language. Nor is this controversy confined to private per sons. Practitioners in the same institution, an professors in the same college are deeply involved in it, and not unfrequently expose each other in their public lectures. All this I know to be the case. It is a circumstance no less lamentable than true, and one one which casts an indelible stigma not only on the persons concerned, but also on the prefession at large. Those who now consider it their glory to engage in a litigation so finitless and unprofitable, little think that at some future period, they may bring on themselves ever lasting infamy and contempt. It is a very common and just remark, that if Doctors cannot agree, who can? and it is a pity that physicians, in whom s much confidence is reposed, should thus lay them selves open to the ridicule and derision of the vulgar .- I hope this friendly hint will have its in ended effect. AMICUS MEDICORUM.

Gen. Cadwallader, of this city, has been appointed by the Secretary of War, President of the Board of Visiters for the examination of the corps of Galets, at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, which is now in session.

TAVERN KEEPERS. - All those Tavern-keepers whose Licences become renewable at the June Sessions of the Mayor's Court, and all others who are desirous of petitioning the Court for Licenses to keep Public Houses, are desired to call on the Clerk for Petitions, before the 21st inst.

Extract of a letter from Howana, dand May 24. Captain Baddle is Still with us and well-his crew continues healthy; but we are threatened with a sickly season. Several pirates have been heard of to windward of Matanzas, and the Grampus has lately brought in an English brig found in possession of four piratical vessels.

Counterfeit five dollar Bills of the Union Bank of New London, are in circulation. They resemble in their general appearance, the genuine bill, but will be readily detected by good judges. The paper is of a darker shade, and the signature of the Cashier is a clumsy imitation

Counterfeit one dollar notes on the State Bank at Morris, N. J. have just made their appearance. They are well executed, and would be readily taken by the best judges, if not aware of them—They are dated Jan. 1st. 1818, letter C. in favor

Letters from South America mention that some ifatures are highly approved there. also said Waltham cotton cloth has been imitated in England, and shipped to this country with the same stame. The same remark has been made of the Wilmington Stripes

Pr gress of Improvement .- The citizens of Sa lem, (N. J) contemplate the establishment of a Steam But to run between that place and Philadelphia; also the erection of a Steam Mill for grinding wheat, by which it is calculated an im-mense saving will arise to the farming interest in the neighbourhood.

The New-York Statesman says, we have information which justifies us in stating with confidence, that a commercial Treaty between the United States and France has been signed by Mr. Adams and M. De Neuville.

Capt. Johnson, of the brig Eliza Morrison, arrived at Savannah, in the 5th inst. from Port at Prince. He left that place about the 27th ult. and informs that every thing was tranquil in the Island when he left it. President Boyer had returned from the Spanish part of the Island. Great preparations had been made by his subjects for his rerations had been made by his subjects for his re-ception, by the erection of triumphal arches, &c.
which, however, were rendered useless by his en-tering the city privately by a different route from that expected. St. Marks was declared a port of entry from the 25th May. Lumber was to be ad-mitted for one year, free of duty. Markets dull for all kinds of American produce, and money sea ee.

A lad of about twelve years of age, son of Mr. Bankson Taylor, of this city, was drowned on Wednesday afternoon, while bathing in the Delaware. The body has

The postscript of a letter dated May 3d, received by a respectable mercantile house in the city of Charleston, from their correspondent in Liverpool, says-" A letter is just received in town fr member of Parliament, stating that Ministers have determined to lay on additional daty on Cotton.

The rate is not finally settled but it will be either id or 2d. per lb. to take effect the 5th of July.

The Wheeling Gazette (of Brooke county, Va) states on the 1st mat, that "the season thus far has been remarkably fine; grain of every kind looks well in this neighborhood, and is unusually forward."

Mubicon - F Life. TIMES, TIS FORM AND PRESSURE

Earthquake.—A severe shock was fest at St. Ja go de Cuba on the 8th ult, which lasted about 30 minutes—tables were overset, glasses broken and the walls of some buildings fell in.

Three youths convicted of wantonly assaulting Three youths convicted of wantonly assaulting passengers with stones, &c. have been sentenced at Baltimore to undergo a solitary confinement in the jail for 30 days; to be kept on bread and water; fined five dollars each, and to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid.

General Brown.—We are happy in being able to announce, that this gallant officer has so far reco vered his health as to be on his way to Washingtor —where, as Commander-in-Chief, he is to take up

Good Times.—A printer at the westward of Boston, informs his readers that "Truth will appear next week," whether for the first time in his paper he does not say; and an eastern bookseller announces that he has just received "a fresh supply of Happiness,"

The Caterpillers and Grasshoppers are stated, in the Montreal pipers, to have commenced their ravages at that place, on every description of ve

Among the works advertised for publication i Paris, we observe a periodical paper to be entitled "Le Petit Courier de Lucifer," or, in English, Satan's Little Post Boy.

An arsenal has just been finished at Berm which has cost the British government more than a million of dollars, and another million is to be ex-pended in the construction of a "break water" to secure the anchorage.

A man named William Porter, was executed a Wilmington, N. C on the 1st inst. for burglary.

Benjamin Brown, a slave belonging to Mr. Aaronustis, of Newport, (Del.) was convicted of bur glary, which by the laws of that state, is a capital offence. On Thursday the 6th inst, the pris death was pronounced against him—he is to be ex-ecuted at New Castle on Saturday the 29th of this

Acrident.-A boat lately upset at Quebec with 9

Two young girls were killed by lightning in the room of a house where there were eight persons at New-Salem, (N. H.) on the lat. inst. Four others were struck down, but recovered from the

A good haul—One hundred and eighty two Stur-geons were lately taken at one tide at Quebec: the smallest of these royal inhabitants of the waters were 50 lbs and one of them weighed 213 pounds French weight

Shocking Murder.-A man named Railiff Ray, has been committed for trial at Augusta charged with murdering his mother-in law by shooting through the neck.

A Tood was lately found alive in a stone taken from the Canal at Lockport; its place of confine-ment was distant six inches from the exterior sur-

The steam boat superior arrived at Burnaro in Tuesday last week. This was her first trip, and she was welcomed into the harbour by a national salute, which she returned. She left Buffalo on the Friday following, and on her return was to receive-most of her freight, belonging to the American Fur Company at Blackrock.

A man named John Callerty has been committed to the prison at Montyral, accused of the murder of a person named John Outs, in the county of Ros-common, Ireland, in the month of July last.

The Liverpool Mercury, in an article assails cobbett save that the London Times, a short time, ince, issued a double publication, with nine hun With such patronage as this, we should suppose the publisher might stand a chance to lay up some thing for a contingent fund, in these changeable

Imprisonment for Debt.—It was decided at the last Gircuit Court of Vermont that an act of the Legislature, authorising the liberation of a debtor from prison, and suspending for a term of years all proceedings against the body and property of debtors, is contrary to the restriction in section ten of the first article of the constitution of the United States, as impairing the obligation of a contract, and there-timore Patriot of Saturday, that about 11 o'clock on the evening previous two persons went on board one of the bay packets lying in the harbour, and in a frolesome mond began wrestling on the deck, while the captain, Lewis, was askep in the cabin. Awakened and alarmed by the noise he came on deck, drove one on shore, and in the scuffle, the other fell overboard and was drowned, who on ex-

Smith Randall, convicted at Tuscaloosa, (Alab.) fifty dollars, has been sentenced to be hung at a few miles from it, came in contact with Tuscaloosa on the 7th of June.

The Providence Gazette, says, that fourteen cords of wood were burnt on the passage of the Steam Boat Connecticut from New-York to that

Count Survilliers, (Joseph Bonaparte) daughter, and suite, are new at Bellmont Hall, Schooley's Mountain Springs, on a visit for a few weeks.

Jn. Mathieu Barry, Esq. captain in the Imperia Army, and now one of the suite of Count Survi-liers, is stated to have been put down in the Will of the Emperor Napoleon for 200,000 francs, as a proof of his high satisfaction for the fidelity of that very gallant officer.

Squirrel Shooting.—During the month of May 6000 squirrels are stated to have been shot in Mercer county, Pennsylvania.

Pruning Fruit Trees.—The month of June is considered the best period of the year for pruning fruit trees. Great care, however, ought to be taken not to hack or chop the limbs, but to remove them by a fine and sharp saw, close to the trunk or branch from which they are intended to

A committee of the logistature of Kentucky have made a proposition, to remove from office a Judge of the highest state court, for no other rea-son than because he pronounced a certain law un-

Between the 29th May and 4th June, 78 ves-sels arrived at Quebec, from Europe, conveying

A Turtle of a very uncommon kind has been taken at Beaufort, N. C. It measures, in length, 7 feet 4 inches—in width, from the end of one fin to the end of the other, 9 feet—and 2 8-12 feet through the body. The back is black, which, with its sides, are 8 squares; the under part is black and white, and the bill resembles that of the hawk.

The East Lothian Scotch banking-house, has stopped payment. The immediate cause is said to be, the manager having absconded with the sum of 42,0004 from its coffers. A commission of bankruptcy, is, we understand, to be opened immediately.—Liverpool Paper.

The Savannah Georgian says, that Mr. Henry Clay is spoken of as United States Ambassador to Mexico, and Mr. Poinsett to Chili, to Buenos Ayres

A grand Jury at a Court held in the county of Bucks, in this state, recently made the following

representation:
"The Grand Jury inquiring for the County in the distance in th Bucks, have had occasion to observe in the dis-charge of their duties at the present term, that a practice which has long been a subject of complaint still continues to prevail, viz.: Justices of Peace, under a mistaken view of their dutes, 100 often bind over persons charged with frivilous of-fences, that do not deserve to be the subject of and the county to unnecessary custs.

Extract of a letter from an English gentlemen, lately travelling through New England
"I arrived here (Montreal) on the 1st instant. The country I travelted through, I found well worthy of seeing. The scenery in general is very rugged, and wild, and the industry and perseverance of the inhabitants, conspicuously evinced in their mounting up gradually to the tops of their hills, with their enclosures and cultivation. The expertness, particularly, with which they use the plough, in their rough and rocky mountains, is very striking, and I think the majority of the countries in OLD England might be taught many useful leasons from your NEW England practices, in that respect "

From the Ballowell Advocate, June 8.

FIRE IN THE WOODS — For two or three weeks past, the woods in this section of the State, have been on fire, and the damage done is very great in Litchfield several fields of grain have been entirely been every large. In Litchfield several fields of grain have been entirely burnt over, besides a quantity of woodland. In the western part of Augusta the damage is also considerable; a number of large tracts of woodland have been destroyed. In Phillips, Somerset county, it has destroyed a graat amount of property, among which are several dwelling houses, barns and mills. We also learn that a number of dwelling houses have been destroyed in Clinton, in this county. The fire continues to rage in every direction, and buffles all efforts to check it.

Breach of Promise of Marriage.—Last week Hetty McWharton obtained a verdict of 700 dol-lars in the Circuit Court at Waterloo village, N. Y. lars in the Circuit Court at Waterloo village, N. Y. against James Thomas, for breach of promise of marriage, and, at Concord, New-Hampshire, on the 9th instant, another young man was subjected in 384 dollars, for violating his "troth" in similar circumstances. If these numerous examples do not check the evit, they at least give a portion to many virtuous girls, whose poverty, it is more than probable, was the only cause of their being slighted.

Serious Accident — Wednesday forenoon a well dressed young woman, apparently about 15 years of age, attempting to cross Grand-street, New-York, in her way up Broadway, was encountered by a large hog running from a dog. He struck her with such force as to knock her off her feet entirewith such force as to knock her off her feet entire-ly, and in falling she struck her head first upon a large stone, which cut a gash of nearly or quite three inches in length; nor was it until after she had lain in a senseless and bleeding state for near-ly two hours that she came to herself.

On Saturday, the 1st inst. Ansel Truby, George Felter, Hiram Chase, Baniel Loomis, and Morgan Comstock went into the Delaware river at Walton, Delaware county, New-York, to bathe. Truby was discovered to be strangling, when Chase awam to his assistance. The drowning man seized him by the hair, and with much difficulty be estricated himself and reached the shore.—Loomis then made the attempt, but he also was seized by Truby, and with great exertions broke from his grasp. About the same time Pelter came to his assistance; he seized Felter and kept his gripe upon him until they both sunk together to the bottom. At this perilous moment, a captain Newbury, who had been sitting on the bank, three off his cost and shows, exclaiming "for God's sake, don't let them drown," leaped into the water and the secape; but the drowning man made a On Saturday, the 1st mst. Ansel Truby, George made his escape; but the drowning man made a fatal grasp upon Newbury. When taken out, blood was gushing from the mouth and nose of Newbury, which led to the supposition that Truby bad clenched him by the neck. An aftempt was made to resuscitate them, but without effect.

Quebec, May 28.—The weather has been very warm this day and yesterday, the thermometer having risen to-day as high as 80, although on Friday night last, it froze so hard that ice of the thickness of a dollar was seen on water contained in vessels which had been exposed during the night. Shad have made their anexague; in our market.

Melancholy.—About half a mile from this place, on Tuesday last about 4 o'clock P' M. as Jacob Bency was returning from Philadelphia, with the team of Jacob Gamber, a flash of lightning struck the ground at a small distance from the stunned him so that he fell, and the wagon which was heavy loaded passed over his body. He aurvived only about 10 hours after.

Oxford, (N. Y.) May 20. SINGULAR THEFT.—A footman a few days since, travelling from this village, and several young cattle in the public road, and not having a conscientious idea of meum et tuum, took them into his possession, drove them directly past the house of their owner and sold them at a short distance further on, put the money in his pocket and es-

SHIPWRECK.

Extract of a letter from Elizabeth City, N. C. dated

"On Friday evening, the 31st ultimo, the schr. Southampton, of Winton, Lake Brown, master, from Philadelphis, for this purt, went on shore in Pantico Sound, on a shoal making out from New Inlet, five miles south-east of Roanoke Island. The weather was fine, and has continued to be so since though I understand the is abandoned to since, though I understand she is abandoned to the wreck master, and is salverised to be sold on the 15th inst. She has no cargo of consequence. It is said she was insured a kw days before she left Philadelphia. If we may judge from reports, his shipwreck is of a very suspicious nature."

CAST-IRON TOMBSTONES. - At Vienna it is common to cast slabs for the lids of tombs. Moveable types are inserted in the moulds to trace the inscription, and a basso relievo of emblematic design mostly adorns

The harbour of Kinsule, in Ireland, memorable The harbour of Kinsale, in Ireland, memorable to Americans, on account of the destruction of the Albion packet, lies in the county of Cork, and almost in the southern extremity of the island. It is a bold and capacious harbour, and is navigable for large ships twelve miles above the town; it is situated at the mouth of the river Bandan, and is furnished with a dock for the use of the royal navy, the entrance to which, is defended by a fort. But the coast of Ireland is surrounded by impregnable rocks, and may well be denominated an iron bound coast. What then must have been the sensations of our unhappy countrymen, while made the sport coast. What then must have been the sensations of our unhappy countrymen, while made the sport of the tempest, to behold nothing but barriers of rocks opposed to its fury; what thoughts must have occupied their minds in the gloomy interval, between the certainty of death and the rapid approach of that event! How feeble is the strength of man, when opposed to that of Omnipotence.

cident which happened to a stage near that city. Having stopped to change horses at a post house near the aummit of a steep hill, the carriage, left for a moment without driver or horses, was set in motion by the wind, and literally running away with itself, descended with great velocity to the foot of the hill, where it overturned .-There were ten passengers within, only one of whom, a child of six years, was unhurt; the rest were more or less injured, and the leg of one broken.

COMMUNICATED

A few weeks ago, I noticed a circumstance in domestic economy, which I hope will find a place among modern phenomena. Four hens were employed in protecting one broad of chickens: and each defended them with equal courage against the approach of danger. It was a circumstance which I have never observed in the country, and if the approach of danger. It was a circumstance which I have never observed in the country, and think augurs favourably for reproduction.

---

COMMUNICATION.

There is in preparation, and will speedily be produced at the Tivoli Theatre, a new Drams, called the "Legend of Montrose; or, the Highiand and dramatized by a young gentleman of this city

We have been favoured with a perusal of it, by the author, and with due deference to him, must acknowledge that it is drawn out in a very ingenious and masterly style. He has, through the whole piece, endeavoured to resemble the novel as closely as it would admit, without injuring the

To enter into a long detail of its merits, would be useless, as it is written from that very popula work; the worth of which has been duly appre ciated by our citizens generally.

TALMA, THE PRENCH ACTOR. Extract of a letter from Paris.

"It is rather remarkable that the actor, who can represent the heroes of antiquity with superior talent, should in private life entertain a taste for the atrical pomp. At his country residence at Brunoy, he lives with the ostentation of a marquess or petty prince. He constantly keeps a number of workmen employed in making new crections or alterations on his grounds. The people of the village salute him with fire works and rejoicing, as though he were a lord of the manor of ancient family; and it appears that Talma is much gratified by this kind of homage. Though nearly sixty years of age, he retains all the vigour of his talent, and his retirement would be a great loss to the Prench drama. It is however probable that public admiration, and the considerable emolument he derives from his profession, will induce him to continue on the stage " It is rather remarkable that the actor, who can profession, will induce him to continue on the stage for many years to e. me."

DRAMATIC SUMMARY.

TIVOLI THEATRE.-The entertainments . TYVILI THEATRE.—The entertainments announced for this evening, consist of the Tragedy of Douglas, or the Nobie Stepherd, and Sylvester Daggerwood, or the Mad Actor. A new melo drama, written by a gentleman of this city, called the Legend of Montroue, from the last Waverly ovel, is said to be in rehearsal.

novel, is said to be in rehearsal.

BALTIMORE—Dimon & Pythias, or the Test of Friendship, and the musical romance of the Forty Thieves, were presented on Wednesday eve, at Mr. Wond's benefit. The new opera of the Enterprise, or Love and Freasure, was announced for last evening. Mr. Cooper is engaged and will appear next week.

New York.—A new melo drama now in rehearsal, is to be performed on Monday evening, called the Grecum Captive, or the Fall of Athens. It is attributed to Mr. Noah, and is founded upon the present struggle between Greece and Turkey. The proceeds of last Wednesday evening more The proceeds of last Wednesday evening, were appropriated to the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Bank-er—the tragedy of Pizarro, and the farce of the Romp, were the performance—Mr. Banker personated the part of Rolla, and Mrs. Banker that of Priscilla Tomboy. Last evening, the tragedy of Predolfo, and the melo drama of the Miller and Predolfo, and the melo drama of the Miller his Men, were the performances for Mr. Wood-hull's benefit FOURIGN -- Madame Catalini gave her first Concert at the Argyle Rooms on the 24th of April Her voice is said to be as clear, firm and extensive as ten years ago. The educy of the Courier says, in singing Rebe's air, she justified all that had been ever said or imagined of her executive powers. The awell of her voice from the piano to the trumpet came like a burst of tempest on the ear; and while she was sporting with the gentle passages, her noble countenance all relaxed into passages, her noble countenance all relaxed into smiles, her voice twittering and joyous like that of a lark in a glorious vernal sky. All that were present suppended their breath that not one of such exq-jude notes might be lost. The room was so crowded that all the places in the orches ra not assigned to the musicians, were occupied by gen-tlemen, and even ladies who were glad to have any seat or even standing places —Madame Catas, ini gave her second Concert at the Argyle Rooms, on the lst of Max. Mr. Kean was planing at Drury Lane Theatre; Romeo, Kean; Mercutic, Eiliston.

At the Covent Garden Theatre, Mr. Young was and Fith Streets, containing Statis sufficient with Street, between the Covent Garden Theatre, Mr. Young was and Fith Streets, containing Statis sufficient with Streets and Statis and Stat advertised for King Lear; Edgar, Kemble, Cordelia, Mos Poote, and Fifth Streets, Cordening Statis sufficient delia, Mos Poote,—A young woman ising at New.

Castle, became deranged after seeing the play of Cottellosshe frequently exclaimed on the viblains murder her? This says the London editor, is a sort of parallel case with that of the American Sentinel, who lately and Othellosses and PAGE & SON, Brokers and Conveyancers, Not South Fit became.

Bristol Property—for Sale. Sentinel, who lately shot Othello, remarking at the time, that "no negro rascal should kill a white

Public Bale Report.

J. and W. LIPPINCOTTS & CO. Auctioneers

From June 8th, to 14th, 1822. 8UGAR—35 hhds. St. Craix, $11,00 a 12 60 cwt 8 do. Porto Rico, 800 a 9,00 — 31 bbls. do 8,60 a 10,60 — 10 do. New-Orleans, 9 10 — 10 do New-Orleans, 9 10 — 26 box White Havana, 14,00 a 14,05 — 82 do Brown do 9,50 — (Terms—$500 or 1000, 60 days; upwards, 50) MOLASSES—55 hbds, Havana, 30 gail

17 do. Havana, 27 t —
TEA-4 j-chests Pouchong, 75 —
PF-PPER—10 bags, 21 lb.
[Terms, $100, 60 days; 200, 90; upw. 4 m.]
RUM—9 lblds. Jamaica, 4th & 5th proof, 95 a 1,00;
WHISKEY—3 lblds. 5 lbls Apple, 1st pr 35 gal.
PASSINS—00 becs. Bloom. 2,15 a, 2,2 lb. gr.

RAISINS— 00 boxes Bloom, 2,15 a 2,20 box.
12 boxes Muscatel, 2,50 — 15 do. do. 5,75 a 5,87 4 hhd. CHALK-28 blids. CHALK—28 hids. 5,75 a 5,87 j hid CHOCOLATE—40 boxes, 60 j boxes Bosion, No. 1 11 j a 12 ib. COTTON—8 bales, New Orleans, 12— SALT PETRE—12 keys London Refined, 8}— MUSTARD—37 keys, 6 doz. ea. do. in bottles

SWEET OIL-8 baskets, CLARET—20 boxes, DEMILOHNS—140 1-gall. Wickerel, 45 ca 2,80 bbl. PFAS—3 bbls. 2,80 bbl. COAL—2500 bushels English, 28 a 284 bush. BOTTLES-50 Gro. Porter, 7,50 gro. TOBACCO-2 hhda. Kentucky, 3,25 a 3,50 cwt.

10 seroons St. Dumingo,

From the Peterslary Intelligencer. THERE is a prace within the breast, A holy, pure, and heavenly flame-A calm serenity of rest

Por those who love the Saviour's name. To wondering souls, a safe retreat

The rock of ages," to the feet
Of those who love the Saviour's name. A light to cheer the gloom of death,

A power to break the monster's reign-ictory awaits the latest breath Of those who love the Saviour's name. Then why should Pilgrims fear the tumb!

---

MARRIED,

On the evening of the 8th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Boche, Mr. PETER FRANCE GAI, originally from Italy, Merchant, to Miss ANN JANE B. daughter of the late Capt John Tree, of this city. On Thursday, the 30th oil: by the Rev. Freeman O-burn, Mr. THOMAS G. POLLIN, to Miss SARAH BRILZ, daughter of Mr. Adam Britz, all of the Northern Labertice.

all of the Northern Liberties
O: Thursday evening by the Rev George
Boyd, Mr JOHN K BRINGHURST, printer, to Miss ELIZ SETH CULNAN.
On the 13th just by the Rev. Thumas Griffin,
Mr. JONATHAN ROSE, to Miss FLIZA SUR-

MAN.
On Thursday evening, the 13th inst. by the Rev.
J. J. Janeway, Mr. CHARLES S. BOKER, to Miss.
LYDIA A STEWART, all of this city.
At the residence of Major Croghan, near Louise.

LYDIA A STEWART, ail of this city.

At the residence of Major Croghan, near Louiseville, Ky, on the 17th ult Brig Gen. THOMAS
S JESUP, Quarter Master General of the army of the U. States, to Miss CROGHAN, daughter of Major Croghan, and sister of Col. Wim. Croghan, the defender of Fort Sandusky.

In England, Mr. SPENCER WATKINS, aged 40, to Miss ELIZABETH SWITH, aged 16, and youngest sister of his son's first wife. He has had two former wives, both of whom are now living, and married to other men. His present wife by this union, has at once became a wife, a mother, a grandmother and unit.

DIED.

On the 8th inst. Mrs. ELIZA CONOVER, late of Charlesion, S. C. eldest daughter of John Dorsey, Esq. deceased,
On Monday morning last, at six o'clock, Mr.

On Monday morning last, at six o clock, Mr. JOHN NEELY aged 27
On the evening of the 7th inst. Mess ELIZA-BETH SLACK, of this city
On Saturday morning last, Mr. JACOB B!CK-LEY, aged 31
On Thursday morning, Captain JOHN MAT-THEWS, aged 61

ALMANAC

1822. JUNE	Sun	Sun Seta.	High P ter	Prises
15 Saturday,	1.	7 25	10 +0	SAFE
16 Sunday, 17 Monday,	4 3	7 25	0 26	35540
18 Tuesday,	4 33	7 25	1 19
19 Wednesday, 20 Thursday,	4 35	7 25	2 7	10 m = 10 m
21 Friday,	4 35	7 25	3 45	3 3 5 5

TIVOLI THEATRE.

Near the Centre Square, Market street. This Evening, June 15th, will be presented, the DOUGLAS, OR THE SOULE SHEPHERD

The entertainment to concinde with Sylvester Daggerwood, or the Stad Acto

MRS. MYRING,

RESPECTIFULLY means of friends and the public, that the has taken that etegant C in the Residence in F sinkford, be in rly the professive of Me Bobert Smitt, and now belonging Thomas Libert, E q for the purpose of accommodating BOARDERS for the Summer area or by the year. The known healthfriends of the retained of the ders a further description unnecessary. N. B. The Gate near the Hay Scales in I.

Schuylkill Navigation Inn. THE Sub-cetter, thankly it is pass as each to pectfully informs his friends and the point that the has made the best arrangements by a accommodation, at his establishment on Historiet, at the N.E. corner of Schuylkill The the choicest Liquors, and hopes, by his a tenton to merit a share of patrocage and support.
THOMAS GARNER.

VALUABLE STABLES. and Fifth Streets, containing States sufficient to Bristol Property-for Sale, AN Elegant Country Retreat, situate on the Borks of the Delaware, in he Borough of Bristol, a short distance above the Sica b Boat Wharf. The lot is 130 test front on the New-York Road, and in depth on the Delaware 227 feet, with a large two story Brick House, three rooms on the first floor, and four well finished rooms on the second floor, with a well finished Kitchen adjoining. Also, on the premises, a large Stable and Grach House, and a good Kitchen Garden, and a select quantity of Fruit Trees of every description. An indisputable title and immediate possession can be given. For further particulars, apply at the office of S PAGE AND SON, Brokers and Conveyancers, No. 8, South Fifth Street.

GOOD LUCK.

NO 17327 a proze of $1600, on-wn yesterday in the Union Canal Lattery, 10th class, was sold at Fortune's Home, 127 Chesnut-street, to a very worthy machanic of this city, who received the cash for his prize in an hour after the drawing was concluded june 15—1t

Fortune again at Port Gibbs.

790. 7343 WHICH drew a Prize of nesday last, is the Pennsylvania State Lettery, was sold at GIBBS' Lucky Office, 41 South Third Street.

June 15—It

JOB PRINTING

Law Blanks, Commercial Blanks, BANK Checks, Policies of Insurance. Catalogues, Gircular Letters, Bills of Lading, Lottery Bills, Lottery Tickets, Lottery Bills, Cards, and Hand Bills of every description, Neatly executed at a short notice, on very rea-

Atkinson & Alexander, No 53 Market street

EPIGRAM

My Clifoc's as fickle and light as a feather, Yet I love her to death; prither, Dick, should I wed

That a feather should tease you, quoth Dick, is no strange, T'other day as I happen'd to pass thro' the grange. I saw that thief Cupid, from doves and from spar rows.

A pilfering feathers to stick in his arrows.
The urchin first shoots you, then pulls out the dart-And leaves you the feather to tickle your heart. Epitaph on a Bater

Beneath this stone here lies old Crusty,
Who, whilst he lived, was fat and crums
His bread, alsa t is now turned musty;
His dough is kneeded quite to mummy:
May flow to from out his dur now apring,
His elegy let cricher sing t

Philosophical Epigram.

Says the Earth to the Moon, 'You're a pilfering

Jaile;
What you steal from the Sun is beyond all helief!
PairCynthia replies, "Madam Earth hold your prate
The receiver is always as bad as the thirf?"

Barke being asked for a motto to a publication, in which the subject of discussion was the Tale of Man, jucusely replied:

The proper study of mankind is Man.

When Hopkins, the Drury Lane prompter, once recommended a man to be a mechanist in prepar recommended a man to be a mechanist in prepar-ing a new pantomime, Garrick made the following objections to employing him:—" This man will never answer the purpose of the theatre. In the first place he cannot make a Moon, I would not give him three pence a dozen for all the Moons he showed me to day. His Sans are, if possible, worse; besides, I gave him directions about the clouds, and such heavy clouds were never seen since the dood. Besire the carpenter to knock the rainbout to pieces, and roll up the blue say, for we cannot hang it up in our firmament."

The following rules have been given by critics, reference to the languages of Europe. If you would address the Deity, make use of Greek or Latn, for their satisfaily, make use of Greek or Latn, for their satisfaily, purity and majesty—if to kings, speak in Spanish; it is show and grave—if to men, use Palian; to women, French; to dogs, Welsh; but if you would affright an enemy, or the d——I himself, make use of High Datch.

An effected Cure for a Pelon-Bathe the part effected in ashes and water-take the yolk of an egg, six drops of spirits of turpentine, a few beet egg, six drops of spirits of turpenture, a new over-leaves cut fine, a small quantity of hard soap, one tea-spoon-full of smiff or fine tobacco; then add one table-spoon-full of burnt salt, and one of In-dian meal, it never fails to effect a cure if applied

Mr. Charbert, the proprietor of the exhibition of the Wild Indian Chief, in New Bond street, Lon-don, while examining one of the poisoned arrows lately, the point touched his chin, and inflicted a slight scratch, which turned his chin and his face block, and caused it to swell. Medical aid was called, but the poison baffled the skill of all medicine. At length, the Indian, who had watch-ed the effect of the medicine, produced some root and applied it to his keeper's face, and it afforded immediate relief. Mr. C. has caused the arrows to be divested of all their poison. be divested of all their poison.

Agricultural Memoranda.

Fruit Trees —A writer in the Norwich Courier, recommends the following method of treating fruit trees:—"In the spring of the year, at, or before the time in which the trees open their buds, although later will answer, acrape away with a hoe all the grass or vegetable rubbish from the trunk of the tree, at the root in such manner as to open the soil to receive the benefit of the dews and rains. If the old earth be barren, acrane out the ton and If the old earth be barren, scrape out the top and put in manure of any kind , should there be ashes put in manuse of any kind; should there be ashes or lime among it, so much the better, as it will effectually kill the sluga and worms which infest the roots of most kinds of fruit, particularly the Peach, Plum, Apricot, Nectarine, &c. (and which is one great cause of their untimely decay.) Soapauds, and all wash from the house, are very excell the grass be dug away so that the wash have free passage. Many persons will see the utility of this method of treatment, by examining trees that stand in a situation to receive the wash of the

TO KILL CABBAGE LICE.

As these vermin infest cubbages, and not unfo quently impede their growth very much, the fol quently impede their growth very much, the fold-howing recipe is given, in substance as we find it. Make a strong decoction of tobacco, and when cool, apply it to the plants by means of a syringe. This springe should be about two feet long and an inch in diameter, having a cap of lead or tin, per-forated with very small holes to prevent the liquid from falling with too much force upon the plants. One application a day for two or three days will generally destroy all the vermin.

FOR RAISING CABBAGES.

Take from the stump of old cabbages, which you generally set out, early, the most prominen almost after they have sufficiently expanded them selves; and set them out in the same manner you do your plants, and they will immediately take roo do your plants, and they will immediately take root and afford you a very early and luxuriant cabbage. Those who have tried this method affirm, that they are much earlier and by far superior to any that can be produced from the plants. They must be broken from the stumps and not cut off, as the small fibres will greatly facilitate their tak-

To save Cucumbers from Bugs.

Sprinkle on at evening (after cool) tea grounds, as they are commonly left by families after use.— This done as often as two or three times in a week, will not only prevent injuries from bugs, but atrengthens and invigorates the vine, and causes it to become exceedingly fruitful.

The Cortes of Spain have agreed to adopt Mr. Jeremy Bentham's plan of a Panipricon for the prisoners in the Peninsula. This, our readers unpersons seeming pain to a person to the prantices in the Peninsula. This, our readers understand, is a circular penitentiary, enclosing a round area, with a ludge in the centre, from which the overseer can look into every cell, and the criminals be thus subjected to a perpetual inspection. Mr. Bentham proposed to contract with the British government to maintain their convicts in safe councily for twelve posted per annum a head, subjecting them to his reforming management.—
This offer was refused—and each convict in England non-courts, it is said, near 1000? upon an average.

To shew that Mr. Bentham's plan was not alto-getter visionary, it may be mentioned that, in the Massachusetta State Prison, were the average mber of convicts has been 250 for the three last re, the espences of the prison, including offi-calculus, have been as follows:—in 1819, 272—in 1820, 6758—in 1821, 7299, or about atpose dellars per head annual cust. CHARLES BROCKDEN BROWN

The April Number of the London New Monthly Magazine, edited by Thomas Campbell, Faq. has this notice of the writings of the late Charles Brockden Brown.

"His Bomance of Wieland, was the first of his writings that fixed itself upon the public mind; and it was speedily followed by his Ormond, Arthur Mervyn, and Edgar Huntley; the last three of which were entitled to as high a rank among the literary productions of America, in point of powerful description, truth of sentiment, and striking situations, as that which has been so wilfully assigned in our own country to the numerous volumes which, under the fame of the "Author of Tales of my Landlord," have imposed a kind of obligation on the public to read them, whether they come firth in the sterling worth of original genius, or the more questionable shape of old chronicles modernized, and forgotten stories revived. To Brown the praise of full originality is amply due: he pillages no records but those of his own observation—he seeks no aid from affected quaintness of phraseology, or curious adapting of ancient manners and modern comprehension. He is uniformly grand, yet simple, moral and affecting. Besides his novels, which were six or seven in number, he engaged in a great number of periodical publications, to all of which he contributed " His Romance of Wieland, was the first of his in number, he engaged in a great number of peri-odical publications to all of which he contributed with the ardour and industry of a mind loving liwith the ardour and industry of a mind foring in-terature for its own sake, and amiably hoping through its means to benefit and refine his native country. His fame will probably chiefly rest on his Wieland, his Arthur Mervyn, and his Edgar Huntley; all productions of extraordinary genius, not so much rewarded in their native country, and not so universally brown in this, as they decrees to be; has the Impressed six already beginning to find that but the Americans are already beginning to find the but the Americans are already beginning to find that taste and literature may be subjects of national pride as well as steam bouts and navigable rivers; and Englishmen are in general ready enough to do justice to merit, when they are once convinced of its existence, whatever nation it may belong to? We therefore hope, that between both countries, Mr. Brown's posthumous fame, will at least receive that tribute of admiration which ought to have been more profusely rendered to his living exertions."

A few grains of salt dropped into the water in which flowers are kept, it is said, preserve them greatly from fading, keeping them in bloom more than double the period that pure water will.

Paroley, when rubbed against a glass tumble will break it. The cause of this phen

CLOCK & WATCH MAKING. SAMUEL HUCKEL, Clock and Watch Maker, No. 38, South Street, a few doors above Front seals and Keys, Jewellery, &c. &c.

* Clocks and Watches carefully repaired and april 29—6m

TO LET,

A two story House in Sixth street, on the west side, first above the Millpond Bridge, containing two rooms on each floor, with two garrets, (one of which is plastered.) two good dry cellars, and a pump of excellent water at the door, in a healthy pleasant situation, one mile and a half from the city, opposite the Phonix tavern.

Enguire on the premises, or of Mr. Esherick, No. 9 North Fifth street. a healthy

WALDREN BEACH,

MANUFACTURES and has for Sale, in Whole VI sale quantities, the following articles: Cake, Canister and Roll Blacking—Windsor Soap, and Wash Balls—Pomatum, Ink Powder, plass Paper, &c. &c.
N.B. The Manufacturer will sell in Wholesale quantities only, to Stores, and those wishing to

SILVEIRA & BROWNE,

WOOLEN DRAPERS AND TAILORS, No.
83, South Second Street, between Norris's and Gray's Alleys, respectfully inform their friends and the public in general, that they have now on and the public in general, that they have now on hand a handsome assortment of superfine Black and Blue Cloths, with a variety of other fashion-able colours; a fine assortment of Cassimeres and Vestings of the latest fashion; together with Dril-lings British has Annual the above will be made. briggs, Stripes, &c. Any of the above will be made to order on the most reasonable terms, and as they as the provided with the best workmen, they flatter themselves they will be able to give satisfacion to those who may favour them with their custom-

WM. WALLACE, No 22 SOUTH THIRD STREET.

Has Received of the late Arrivals, TEN cases of LEGHORN, containing an assort-ment of Mens', Womens' and Childrens' Hats and Bonnets, which will be sold by the case, dozen or otherwise, as low as they can be bought in the

ALSO,
Fashionable Winter Bonnets, White Chip and American Straw do. Feathers, Flowers, Ribbands, super, black and colored Bombazeens 1 do. Elegant Merino Shawls and Scarls,

3 do. Nankin and Canton Crapes,

1 do. new stile Merino pattern Furniture Chintz, Irish Linens, Sheetings, and Diapers, An assortment of French and India Silks, Lace

4 4 Ingrain Carpeting, 4-4 English Ingrain Hemp do, a new and superior article.

With a variety of other articles in the Dry Goods

dec 22-if

Impediments of Speech. CHAPMAN, No. 187, Pine Street, Philae delphia, having cured himself and four gentlemen, of whom he can show the most satis-lactory certificates and give reference to, is desi-rous of extending the like benefit to all persons troubled with Stuttering or Stammering. It is particularly requested that applications will only be made between the hours of 6 and 7 in the orning and the same hours in the evening.

All letters must be post paid. may

10,000 Cypress Shingles.

FOR SALE, by the Subscriber, 10,000 Cypress Shingles, dressed and undressed, which he offers at moderate prices, in lots to suit purchasers.

MCHAEL PEPPER, No. 232 Cuthurine street.

quantity of ICE for sale. Apply as above, april 27-60° Also, 500 lights of SASH, 8 by 10, and a large

ANDREW MOORE's

TOOTH BRUSH MANUFACTORY, No. 119 North Third street, above Race street, Phileiphia, where he offers for sale, Tooth Brushes of a superior quality. Also, Fancy and Common Brushes, wholesale and retail, on the most reason-able terms. All orders thankfully received, and punctually attended to. april 6—tf

QUILL MANUFACTORY.

REYMHORG & HAGEDORN, No. 41 Ches-for sale, all kinds of Clarified Yellow and White Manufactured QUILLS, from $2 50 to $25 the Money to Loan on Mortgage. SEVERAL Sums of different amounts, from one thousand to fifty thousand Itoliars, to Loan on approved security in the City or County of Phila. Apply to ISAAC ELLIOTT, No. 82 Chasnut street. Prendi School.

CHARLES KLOTE returns his grateful thanks to the citizens of Philadelphia, for the encouragement he has received in this city, and hopes to deserve a anntinuance of public entifidence by his assiduity and attention. He has opened a French Evening School, at his house No.
173 FINE STREET, for the instruction of Young

173 PINE STREET, for the instruction of Young Ladies and Gentlemen, at separate hours, in this useful Language. Terms, $5 per quarter, to be paid half in advance.

Lessons given in private families and Seminaries. C. K. is employed for the tuition of the French Language in two of the most respectable Seminaries in this city, where every satisfaction will be given as to his expacity. will be given as to his capacity.

DAVID EVANS.

OF the late firm of David and Joseph Evans, has Opened a Commission MOROCCO and LEATHER STORE, Ab. 27 Cheanut street, between Second and Pront streets, Philadelphia, where he will sell all kinds of Leather on Commission for Country Tanners and others, and allows keeps a general assemble of Morocco, of always keeps a general assortment of Morocco, of various colours, on hand—he likewise purchases Spanish Hides and Tanners Oil for those who may want. A large assortment of GOAT SKINS is espected shortly, on consignment.

may want. A large assortment of Good is expected shortly, on consignment.

Being brought up to the Tanning and Currying he considers himself a judge of Leather and Hides. He will also receive SHOES to sell on Commission.

The All which will be attended to get 2—tf

No. 43, SOUTH THIRD STREET,

THE proprietor of Port Gibbs, most respectfully returns his thanks to his friends and the public, for the very liberal share of patronage bestowed on him since his establishment in business, and flatters himself, that from his prompt and liberal share of patronage between the public of the property of the public of the property of the public of the p beral manner of conducting business, to merit an increased share of their approbation. Those trading at Port Gibbs, from the very day its flag was busined, faul these has been been dead. hoisted, (and they have been tolerably numerous) generally come to a good market, and many of them actually made their fortunes. In fact, it has become famous as a depot of trade, where invest-ments are almost sure to produce a handsome pro-fit—so much so, indeed, that the opinion strongly prevails, that fortuse has marked it for her own. If such be the fact, then all doubts must vanish
It must be the successful port of entry.—The pro prieter, therefore, most earnestly solicits those in pursuit of a profitable trade, to freight their pockets well with specie or its representative, and set immediate sail for Port Gibbs. The present set immediate sail for Port Gibbs. The present fair winds will bring the skilful sons of old Nep-tune, in a few hours, to anchor at this famous port of good luck, where hundreds of valuable cargoes are now for sale, at the lowest prices, to those who first apply. The proprietor also trades in Foreign Gold, Spanish Dollars, &c.

Union Canal Lottery—10th Class.

$10,000 5,000 1,000 20 100 100 Present price of Whole Tickets 36

Pennsylvania State Lottery, 2d CLASS-NOW DRAWING-SCHEME: 1 Prize of $15,000.

1 prize of $6,000 | 2 prizes of $1,000 1 do. 5,000 | 7 do. 500 2 do. 2,000 | 9 do. 100

Price of whole Tickets, $7-shares in proportion. Apply at PORT GIBBS, No. 43 8. Third street. 127 Cash advanced for prices in the street. Tickets examined gratis.

Mrs. Shallus's Circulating Library,
No. 94, SOUTH THIRD STREET.

MRS. 8, informs her friends and the public in at No. 94 South Third street, where may be had,
all the latest English and American publications.

all the latest English and American publications.

In consequence of the present scarcity of money, all subscriptions commenced after the first of February, 1822, will be at $5 per year, $2.75 for 6 months, and $1.50 per quarter—Payable in ad-N. B. Catalogues of the Library are just publish ed, in which are included all the works feb 23—tf

CHARLES M'ARTHUR, Silk, Woollen, and Cotton Dyer, Gc. Ge.

CONTINUES at the old established stand, No. O31 UNION STREET—where all orders in his line will be punctually attended to.

OT Cloth, Silk Dresses and Shawls, &c dyed

o any shade or pattern, at a short notice, and at very moderate prices.

GEORGE ALLCHIN,

OOK BINDER and GILDER on the edges of Books, Letter and Fillagree Paper. Pape blacked on the edges for mourning, at No. 163
Vine Street, third door above Fifth Street, north side—Where he continues to manufacture Backgammon Tables and Chess Boards.

Orders from any part of the United States executed on reasonable terms. mar. 4-tf

DAVID COGGINS,

AT HIS LEATHER AND HIDE STORE, No. 80, Chesnut Street, has just received, by the late arrivals, and for sale at the lower terms, large supplies of SPANISH HIDES, of various qualities well selected and in fine order.

N. B.—Joseph Coggins has on hand 2000 pairs
City made atrong Shoes, first and second quality, wholesale or retall.

may 11—if

NO. 57, MARKET STREET. Cast Steel Scythes, Sickles, &c.

THE most approved makes of Grass and Cors SCYTHES, out and wrought NAILS, with a general assortment of HARDWARE and CUT LERY, for sale by the Subscriber, cheap for cash

Thomas Shipley.

april 27-tf THE SUBSCRIBER

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has on hand at his Manufactory, No. 45 South Front street, a large assortment of BASS SIDE DRUMS, TAMBOU. RINES, &c. which he will dispose of on the momentum terms. THOMAS YOUNG. feb 2—tf

Samuel Mason, jun.

CLOCK and WATCH MAKER, has Removed from No. 167 Chemnut street to No. 249 Market atreet, north side, between Sixth and Seventh atreets, where he offers for sale, an assortment of warranted patent Lever, Repeating & Plain Watch en. Also, Gold, Gilt and Steel Chains, Seals & Keys Clocks and Watches carefully repaired. feb 2-tf

Hamilton Village Inn.

THIBITION

OBERT SHAW, Victuality, respectfully in.

Sorms his friends and the public, and brother Victualiers, that he has taken the above Establishment for the accommodation of those who may honour him with their custom. Good and sufficient Sheds for Horses, together with Pens for Sheep, and accommodations for Drovers, Farmers, Wagnard March March

JAMES B. WOOD,

42 SPRUCE, between Front and Second etc (Near the Drawbridge, Philadelphia,)

CUTTING BOXES, of a superior kind, may b ad as above, and others of all sorts and sizes.

YARMING UTENSILS, of every description for sale at reasonable prices.

Orders for Shipping, or other purposes, will be supplied at the shortest notice, on moderate feh 23—tf

ALEXANDER PARKER,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints the public, that he has a general assortment of the first quality Garden and Flower Seeds for sale, at the MOYAMENSING Seeds for sale, at the MOYAMENSING RESPECTFULLY acquaints the pub Seeds for sale, at the MOYAMENOUSE BO ANIC GARDEN, Prime street, Love lane, near Eleventh street. Also, a large collection of Green House and Hardy Plants, Fruit and Ornamental Trees and Shrubs, with a fine solection of mental Trees and Shrubs, with a fine solection of the sole Bulbous Roots. Orders, per post, or left at No 40 George street, Southwark, will be punctually march 23-if

THE SUBSCRIBER

OFFERS for sale, at his Manufactor, No. 36 Carters Alley, a few door Ro. 30 Carters Alley, a rew utous from Third st. directly opposite Girard's Bank, an extensive supply of BOOTS and SHOES, of various kinds and qualities. Also, a handsome assortment of Eastern Shoes. JOSEPH COGGINS.

HAT STORE, NO. 24 NORTH THIRD STREET, Ph ladelphia. C. P. WILLMARTH offers to the public, whose patronage he solicits, Water-Proof Imitation Beaver Hats, which are surpassed by none, in chespness and durability. oct 27—if

JOHN M.CLOUD, 46 Market street, KEr Ps constantly on hand, a large and general assortment of Ready mad HATS, which be will sell at very reduotice, on reasonable terms.

JAMES BIRD,

BOOT AND SHOEMAKER, No. 23 north Tenth street, respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has commenced the Boot and Shoemaking busiless, and trusts by strict attention to merit a share of public patronage.

Teeth One Dollar.

WILLIAMS performs every operation on the Teeth complete for $1. Filing, extracting and plugging a single tooth, 25 cents, if plugged with gold, 50 cents. Williams fixes teeth in the mouth, warranted to give satisfaction, for $1.50 a tooth Williams gives information from the Italian, French, English and American authorities, actualists to increase more teeth for life. He also calculated to insure good teeth for life. He also saves teeth in the same way his own were saved, the least painful of any of the English ways; there are three ways, by Hunter, Fox and Norton.

B WILLIAMS, Dentist,
june 1—tf 161 Vine street, near Fifth.

THE BUSINESS RORMERLY conducted by T. W. LEVERING. deceased, Bell Caster, Brass Founder, Bell Hanger and Lock-smith, is still continued at the old established stand, No. 79 SOUTH FIFTH STREET—a capable person engaged, Casts and Hanga Church, Turret, and Ship Bells, on reason riangs Giurci, Turret, and Ship Bells, on reason able terms. House Bells, in town or country, neatly hung, Locks, Jacks, and all sorts of Brass Furniture, neatly repaired. Keys fitted to Locks, and Locks picked at the shortest notice.

A share of public patronage is respectfully so

CARRIAGES AND GIGS.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully tenders his thanks for the patronage which has heretofore been bestowed upon him, and apprizes his friends and the public that his establishment has recently been improved, and augmented to an extent which enables him to supply the calls of his customers at notice. His carriages are no ed and furnished so as to be at once comfortable and commodious—his principal care having been to accommodate them to the several seasons of the year. In the selection of his coachmen he has been particularly careful, that they should be sober and skilful, and that their appearance should corres pond with the equipage. Despatch, diligence and attention, will be constantly given to those who honour him with their commands. The dimensions of his stable being very extensive, he is willing to receive Horses at Livery. He has provided his establishment with a very elegant HEARSE FOR FUNERALS, with Horses and Furniture corresponding with the Vehicle and its

Expuesses sent to any part of the country at any

JOHN CARTER, In Prune street, between 5th and 6th streets

dec. 22-tf TRAP BALL.

THIS entertaining game and pleasing exercise may be enjoyed every Monday afternoon, at the "Traveller's Rest," in Broad street, between Chesnut and Walaut. Traps, Bats and Balls may be had for select parties or promiscuous comp nies at any time. Refreshments of the first quality at the Bar.

REUBEN TRAVELLER. may 25-tf

ROBERT S. ENGLISH. HOUSE CARPENTER, No. 31, Strawbe street, carries on all the various branches Carpentry, on very reasonable terms for CAS

Carpentry, on very reasonable terms for Casta-He will warrant his work to be equal, both for du-rability and elegance, to any in the city. PACKING BOXES made at the shortest notice. *.* All orders thankfully received and promptly executed.

Wholesale and Retail Brewery. THE Subscriber informs his friends and the pub-lic, that they can be supplied with FRESH BEER and ALE, at the following prices, viz. from BEER and ALE, at the following prices, viz. from five gallons and upwards, at the rate of 182 cents per gallon—Table Beer at 62 cents per gallon, Yeast, &c. WM. STEVENS,

No. 64, corner of Gray's alley and Pront street, sept 15—tf

CEYLON TOOTH POWDER

Title recipe for this excellent Dentifrice was sent by a gentleman in the East Indica o his riend in England, where it is universally used and highly approved, being a preventative of the TOOTH-ACHE. It purifies and sweetens the Breath; causes the Teeth to be a beautiful white; improves the enamel and strengthens the Gums Very few have been known to have the Tooth-ache or libermatism in the Gums, who have constantly used it. For sale by THOMAS S. ANNERS, Sole Agent for the proprietor, No. 141 Chesnut street. A liberal discount made to those who buy to sell again. Also a choice assortment of PERFUMERY, Jun. 12—6m

John and Thomas Cluley,

WIRE FENDER and CAGE NAKERS, No. 17 V South Fourth street, next door to the Indian Queen, manufacture all articles in the Wire line on reasonable terms. Orders from any part of the U. States promptly attended to. feb 2—tf S. PAGE & SON.

S. PAGE & SON,
TROKERS, SCRIVENERS AND ACCOUNTS.
Thaving money to put out at interest, may commodated with a variety of property in the or county—Also, bills, hands, and notes of discausted at their office, where Real Estate every description, Mortgages, Miliary Landsock and Ground Renta, are bought and add a Commission: Naturalization Papers for Alica drawn; Pensions secured; Mechanics' and posted; Insolvents' Petitions drawn, and their siness attended to throughout; Writings of kinds correctly executed; Money always to be led on good security; and generally in the performance. kinds correctly executen; attoney mways to be on good security; and generally in the perform of all duties or services, wherein the aid of an a of all duties or services, wherein the sac as a real of all duties or services, wherein the sac as a real or attorney, may be convenient or meful,

N. B. A Register of Real Estate, Ue. here a for inspection and insertion. Twenty five cents the june 1—4 R. L. JENNINGS, CIVES lessons upon his system of SHORT HAND, at No. 2 South Eighth street, to dies or Gentlemen des rous of acquiring a rough knowledge of this art, may be assured from its simplicity, a person of ordinary easier will, in less than two weeks, be able to real will, in less than two weeks, be able to write it correctly and expeditiously.

OGLEBY'S SICKLES. HARRIS's genuine Grass Scythes, General do. English do. Seythe Stones in great a riety—Warranted English Blister'd, Milliand Cast Steel—Iron and Brass Bottling and Cast Steel—Iron and Brass Bottling and Spaces, Waggon Boxes, and a ral assortment of NEW HARDWARE and COT. LERY, just received, and for sale on very terms, by BENJAMIN HORNO june 1—tf No. 47 Market me

New Leghorn Store,

NO 31, SOUTH SECOND STREET.
THE Store lately occupied by S G Powers of Co. is now occupied by Mrs. KNEELAN who has just opened a large assortment of man's, boys' and children's Leghors Hots, mon Straw and Chip Hats, ladies' Leghors of Split Straw Bonnets, with a variety of Conds.

Bres

Cabinet Ware-Room, No. 28 NORTH FIFTH STREET.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his ffeat and the public, that he has on hand a racter of Fashionable FURNITURE, made of the his materials, which he offers for sale on research.

june 8—tf JOHN JAMES Dissolution of Partnership. THE Partnership heretufore existing L.
JAMES WRIGLEY & JONAS SOF Plannel Manufacturers, near the Rising Sun Tovern, Edgermont township, Delaware Court, this day dissolved by mutual consent. Altonidebted to the said firm are hereby requestly settle their accounts, and those having design against it to present their accounts for inspains and settlement to JAMES WRIGLEY, who keep

JAMES WRIGLEY Thankful for the encouragement hereishes received, informs the customers of the late from the carries on the business of manufacturing his carries on the business of survey, as usual, on moderate terms.

*All orders thankfully received, and panameters of the survey o tually attended to. DR. WILLIAM K. MASON, GRATEFULLY returns his thanks to his o Tomers for former favours, and respectively informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Philad the and other places, that he continues to keep the UNION HOTEL, in Tuckerton, New Jersey, pleasantly situated at the corner of Front and Constants.

santly situated at the confer of rent and streets, which is well arranged to accommende families, parties, or individuals. They will be supplied with excellent Boarding, combatals Lodging, and the best of Lugars, at making charges, with every attention that can be ranked.

from the lower side of Market street wharf, Piladelphia—Fare $2.

Tuckerton, N. J. June 5.

(8-3m'

WANTED, A N APPRENTICE to the Turning, Spinning Wheel and Chair making business. A lad about 15 or 16 years of age, from the county, would be preferred. For further information apply at the office of the Saturday Evening Post.

BALM OF COLUMBIA,

An important recent Chemical discourt.

The laties and gentlemen of this city and elsewhere, are respectfully informed, that John Oldridge has fortunately discovered, by the power of chemistry, the grand desideratum of prevening Hair from falling off in PORTY-EIGHT HOUS. This halm will most absolutely, in the course of a short time, make the Hair grow healthy and this. J. O. is well aware that many fraudulent and in-J. O. is well aware that many fraudulent and impositious Oils, &c, have been imposed on the pub positious Oils, &c, have been imposed and ilic, and therefore prejudice will be severe againshis discovery, until trial shall convince his patron that such a thing exists in nature as a certain preventative against the loss of hair. This valuable balm will cause whiskers and beards to grow remidly. No danner need be apprehended to the balm will cause whiskers and beards to pidly. No danger need be apprehended is the human system by the application of this capitlar, restorative. The public may rest assured that a helps nature, and is perfectly harmless.

Persons desirous of becoming agents for the sale of the Balm of Columbia, will please address the proprietor by letter, (post paid,) with a suitable reference.

Personated and sold, at $1 a pint, or 50 ceats for

Prepared and sold, at $1 a pint, or 50 cents for a half pint bottle, by JOHN OLDRIDGE, No. 554 South Front street, and at No. 11 North Fourth street, Philadelphia. RECOMMENDATION.

WE, the underwigned, do hereby certify, that we have, in various cases, used the Balm of Columbis, lately discovered by John Oldridge, of Philadriphia, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventative against the falling off of hair, to also as a restorative. We, therefore, feel assured of its excellence, and consider it valuable and well worthy the attention of the public. In testimony whereof, we have added our respective signatures, and given it our warmest recommendation.

whereof, we have added our respective signal and given it our warmeat recommendation.

Abraham A. Robinson, 55 South Front street.

Cromwell French, 1 Taylor's alley, S. Front si.

John Fine, Plumb street, between 3d and 4th.

John Cook, 35 Penn street.

The proprietor in in possession of many other respectable certificates, which he does not deen necessary to publish, but invites the public to si and see them.

TO RENT,

A CARPENTER'S SHOP, in a central situation and an excellent stand for business, having been occupied as such for a number of years past for further information in a number of years past. For further information inquire of the printers.
For sale cheap, a large bulk Window, sales sash, cases of drawers, doors, School Desks and Benches, &c. Apply as above may 4-6. VENETIAN BLINDS,

VENETIAN BLINDS,

MADE, painted, and fitted up in the best painted, bie manner, at the Columbian Shade Manfactory, No. 104. North Pifth Street, Philadelphia, cheap for eash, or in exchange for Merchanist As the subscriber devotes the whole of his base this business, he flatters himself that he can give this business, he flatters himself that he can give the part of the country carevied the Orders from any part of the country carevied the Orders from any part of the country carevied the fidelity and despatch, by the public's faithful safety.

Jan 12-6m